Old Soldier Hurt

G. A. Clark, who met with an accident at Weiser, Idaho Monday arrived in the city Monday night and was taken to the Hotel Foley where he was attended by Dr. Bacon. An Observer reporter called on Mr. Clark at the hotel yesterday and was given the particulars of the accident. Mr. Clark said that he is a member of the Idaho Soldiers home being a Union veteran of the Civil war.

He is now absent on a 6 months furlough and is on his way to Lostine in Wallawa county to open a boot and shoe shop. He left Boise Monday morning at 2 o'clock and on arriving at Weiser, got off the train to see some friends. The train started suddenly and Mr. Clark in attempting to get on was thrown to the ground. His left foot was drawn under the car and the wheel passed over the heel, tearing the heel and sole from his shoe, but in some manner Mr. Clark's heel was pressed out of the shoe and was not cut. Both feet were painfully bruised by the fall, however. He was also quite badly bruised on his left shoulder and in the left breast, and slightly bruised about the head. He is now resting easily at the Foley Hotel and considers himself very fortunate an escaping without more serious injury. He will go on to Lostine as soon as he is able, where he has some friends.
