A FEW OBSERVATIONS BY OUR REPORTERS

W. A. Worstell is attending the Prohibition State convention in Portland.

M. H. Kirtley is building another addition to his lively barn.

Mrs. Lucy Elledge is visiting friends in Pendleton.

Conductor Frank Coykendall is expected home from Pendleton this morning.

The lagrippe is keeping Ellis Kirtley away from his accustomed place in the Chicago Store.

Mrs. Hector McDonald who has been visiting relatives in this city and valley returned home yesterday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Swackhammer are over from Union, they attended the school contest.

Leputy assessor and Mr. T. A. Rinehart were among the Union visitors who came over to the school exhibition.

T. A. Rinehart and wife came over from Union yesterday morning and went on to Summerville to spend Sunday with relatives.

Mrs. Cora Heeling and daughter Lillian, of Perry, spent the day with Mrs. S. W. Lewis and her daughter Bertha.

After an illness of several months, A. P. Bradbury, one of the best known traveling men who for a dozen or more years has regularly visited this city is again calling on his trade.

Attorney Leroy Lomax, of Union, who is an aspirant for the nomination of district attorney on the republican ticket, is in Wallawa county feeling the political pulse of that community in regard to his candidacy.

Capt. Mahone delivered another one of his splendid lectures at the Marion church yesterday afternoon on the "Destiny of the Republic." He was listened to by a fair sized and attentive audience.

Many of the valley farmers took advantage of the beautiful spring like weather yesterday, to come to town and the merchants were kept on the jump all day tying up buddies and waiting on customers.

Prof. J. W. Kerns has been announced as a candidate for county school superintendent of Wallawa county. Mr. Kerns is a young man of high educational attainments, has held the principalship of the public schools at Enterprise and Joseph and is a wide-awake educator.

Don't forget that "A Nutmeg Match" will be played as a benefit to the La Grande Cornet Band. The play is in the hands of experienced managers and is said to be superior to any play put on by the Redmonds last week.

Dr. M. K. Ball, of La Grande, are guests at the Hotel Pendleton for a short time. Dr. Ball was called here to assist in the operation performed this morning on Mrs. O. W. Vineour, who is suffering from a tumor.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

OSTEOPATHIC PEBBLES

The crowning virtue of osteopathy is that it brings new hope to womanhood; it is her sure and safe escape from most of the ills peculiar to her sex and from the dreaded knife.

Disease results from an obstruction to the natural flow of nervous impulses and vital fluids. Osteopathy is unequalled for relieving the nerves and accelerating the entire circulation.

Osteopathy is not a cure-all, yet its scope and range cannot be measured by the failures of other schools for it is restoring stubborn, chronic cases that medical practitioners have abandoned.

Land Office Business

During the month of February 1904, in the six United States Land Offices in Oregon, 309 homestead and 127 timber land entries were made. The Land Office at La Grande stands at the head of the list, for amount of work done in the month, with 78 homestead entries, and 56 timber land entries.

Little Girl Surprised

Mrs. J. D. Slater gave a very pleasant surprise party to her little niece, May Neil, yesterday afternoon in honor of her tenth birthday. Dinner was served and the little folks all had a good time. Those present were Hilda Anthony, Irene Murphy, Irma Aikie, Naomi Kirtley, Margaret Borie, Helen Curry and May Neil.

Fruitdale Items

Yes, the new telephone line is in and we do not understand how we got along without it.

Ex. Bishop E. Z. Carbine is improving his fruit farm by the addition of a new wood house, yard fence and walks.

L. Oldenberg has finished grubbing out his fall apple and prune trees and will have room to plant 500 winter apple trees in their place. An excellent move.

Mrs. I. N. Castle is on the sick list threatened with lung fever.

Phil Thompson is building an addition to his dwelling, which will add greatly to the appearance, as well as the comfort of his home.

How Can I Cure My

INDIGESTION?

THIS IS A QUESTION THAT HAS BEEN ASKED TIME AND AGAIN BY HUNDREDS—yes, thousands and tens of thousands of people. There is but one way to do this; namely, relieve the Stomach of its nervous strain—rest it; and at the same time Assist the Stomach and Digestive Organs in Digesting and Assimilating Sufficient Food to Rebuild the Tissues Supporting the Organs Involved. There is but one remedy that will do this, and that remedy is KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. If you want to know more about Kodol, come in and
