LA GRANDE, OREGON, TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 29, 1904.

NUMBER 122

COLORADO WAR

Deportation of Labor Leaders Continues—A House to House Raid for Fire Arms.

Telluride, Col., March 28—At noon President Meyer, of the Western Federation of Miners, was unable to secure bonds, and is still a prisoner. The Unionists who own property and are willing to become securities, have been quietly informed that to go on Meyer's bond will make them persona non grata. The federation will probably arrange a cash bond this afternoon. Secretary and Treasurer Forbes was deported, but returned last night and was arrested.

Further deportation of strike leaders, state and national, and district, it is understood, will be made tonight.

House to house raids for fire arms are being made. At one house the troops were refused admittance because a child lay dying of diphtheria and the doors were broken down.

Nutmeg Match

"A Nutmeg Match" will be presented under the auspices of the La Grande Cornet band at Steward's opera house Monday evening April 4. The play will be managed by a man experienced in such work and the leading parts will be played by experienced actors. It is said by the press of cities where it has been played to be an exceptionally meritorious play. In Boise, Idaho, it attracted large crowds for 14 consecutive nights. Secure your tickets early and help the band at the same time witness one of the best plays put on the stage in La Grande this season.

FOR SALE—A yearling heifer, half Jersey and half Durham. Inquire at this office or phone 1503.

BURTON IS GUILTY

"Silver Tongued" Orator of Jayhawker State is found Guilty on Six Counts.

St. Louis, March 28—The jury in the Burton case at 12:30 returned a verdict of guilty.

The senator was found guilty on six counts, several being dismissed during the trial. A motion for a new trial was immediately filed.

TERMS OF LEGAL PENALTY
The maximum penalty is a fine of $10,000 and two years in the penitentiary and perpetual disqualification from holding public office. The sentence will be fixed by Judge Adams.

BURTON'S SUCCESSOR
Topeka Kan March 28—Pending confirmation of the Burton conviction it is not probable Governor Bailey will take any action toward either appointing his successor or convening the legislature in special session to fill the vacancy. The conviction makes Burton an impossibility to succeed himself.

The Actor's Mouth.

The actor's mouth is essentially facile and not infrequently it exhibits a tendency to turn to one side or the other. This is due, in part, to its being constantly used to express emotion and also to the peculiar but no less well recognized fact that when the mouth is somewhat crooked a greater effect can be produced than when it is opened quite straight. Example after example could be cited, but for obvious reasons names may not be mentioned. At one time it was considered the mark of the low comedian, for nearly every one of them had a mouth twisted either to the right or left as the result of "mugging." Some of the most serious actors—even those with a reputation for beauty—could, however, be pointed to as possessing the same characteristic, which has also been observed with not a few opera singers of the first rank.—London Tatler.

Sex Peculiarities.

A man will run as fast as he can to cross a railroad track in front of a train. Then he will watch it till it goes out of sight. Then he will walk leisurely away. He seems to be all right and probably is. That is a man.

A woman in a street car will open a satchel and take out a purse, take out a dime and close the purse, open the satchel, put in the purse, close the satchel and lock both ends. Then she will give the dime to the conductor, who will give her a nickel back. Then she will open the satchel and take out the purse, put in the nickel, close the purse, open the satchel and put in the purse, close the satchel and lock both ends. Then she will feel for the buckle at the back of her belt.—Kansas City Journal.

She Recognized Him.

Two little girls were playing in front of a city dwelling when a strange man went by.
"That man is an undertaker," said one of the little girls.
"How do you know?" asked her companion.
"Oh, because he is the man who undertook my grandmother."—Lippincott's.

Just His Luck.

"I long to go about doing good," said Mrs. Henpeck.
"Don't hang back on my account," replied Mr. Henpeck wearily. "I know a woman who will come to take care of the children for her board and clothes." Then she flared up and wouldn't go.—Chicago Record-Herald.

In a Bad Way.

Mary—I'm sorry to hear that you've not been feeling well. What seems to be the matter?
Jane—I suppose I am run down. Why, for the last month I haven't been able to put any meat even into my shopping.—Brooklyn Life.

ATTEMPT A FAILURE

Japanese Plan to Block up Entrance to Port Arthur Frustrated and Channel is Still Clear.

St. Petersburg, March 28—An official dispatch from Port Arthur to the emperor says that at 1 o'clock this morning the Russian searchlights made out four large merchant steamers making for the entrance of the harbor, supported by six torpedo boats. A heavy fire was opened on them by the batteries and some warships. The torpedo boat Silius, commanded by Lieutenant Krinzi, turned the merchant vessels from their course blowing up the prow of the first and then boldly attacking the enemy's torpedo boats. In the fierce fight which followed Engineer Seyeroff of the Silius and six marines were killed and the commander and 13 men were injured. The Japanese plan to block up the entrance to Port Arthur was frustrated and the channel is still clear.
