Did you see the "Oregon Red Bat"? If you did not you probably will not for another year. It was only an April fool bird. It was in a barrel in front of the Hotel Foley and those about the lobby had more fun than the proverbial box of monkeys. Nearly every passer by wanted to see the red bat and owing to the position of the barrel in the sun it was necessary to shade ones eyes to see to the bottom of the screen covered barrel. A piece of red brick but then r-minded each one who looked that it was April fools days.

The Lady Maccabees of Ever Ready Hive No. 34, of Cove, will present a Farce entitled "Mrs. Willis' Will" on Saturday evening, April 9, at the Maccabee Hall. Nutmeg Match

"A Nutmeg Match" will be presented under the auspices of the La Grande Cornet band at Steward's opera house Monday evening April 4. The play will be managed by a man experienced in such work and the leading parts will be played by experienced actors. It is said by the press of cities where it has been played to be an exceptionally meritorious play. In Boise, Idaho, it attracted large crowds for 14 consecutive nights. Secure your tickets early and help the band at the same time witness one of the best plays put on the stage in La Grande this season.

TROUBLE

A source of trouble—in home cooked meals is their lack of variety. You have no choice of viands. Your appetite is jaded one day. When you sit down to dinner at home the menu contains everything you do not want.

It is different here.—Providing for so many, we can offer the greatest variety. If you do not care for one item on the bill of fare, choose another. They are all good, but the choice is yours. Try it for a while, and bring that tired wife of yours with you.
