A FEW OBSERVATIONS BY OUR REPORTERS

Gardening is the order of the day. Dr. Mollitor is having his residence painted.

Mr. Geo. Palmer left last night on a business trip to Omaha.

Sheriff C. C. Pennington and deputy Sheriff Frank Fry are in the city.

David Wilson, a capitalist of Spokane was a La Grande visitor yesterday.

A number of delegates will go to Elgin today from various parts of the county.

Mrs. Mitchell and family went to Union last night to attend the funeral of Grandma Mitchell.

The little three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meyers is quite sick with pneumonia.

The price of potatoes are advancing. We were informed yesterday that one shipper was paying 90 cents a sack.

Recorder D. H. Proctor went to Elgin yesterday morning to visit his home and will remain over to the 11th of the month.

G. Franklin & Co. who put Ormond bankrupt grocery store going to close it out within a few days. See their ad elsewhere.

"Old Kentucky" will be the attraction at Steward's Opera House, under the auspices of the Linkers.

John E. Hoff has returned from California, he was on the train that met the train that was carrying the bandits. He saw them in a great man.

Engineer Moore who has been for the past 37 years and is now of age, is to be congratulated for excellent physical examination yesterday.

The Rev. W. L. Van Nuys will be the usual Wednesday evening meeting this evening. He will leave on the evening train at his prayer meeting for Pendleton.

J. A. Arbutuckle has placed in the Restaurant a new cash register, very latest design. Mr. Arbutuckle is keeping the Model strict to-date in every respect.

In reporting the names of the teachers of the Blue Mountain city who attended the reunion of Attorney Jos. F. Baker was one Mr. Baker taught for several years.

Parties from Union who came last evening state that county clerk Minnigh had decided to ask for nomination at the hands of the Democratic convention. He at one time made it public that he did not desire a renomination.

Thos. Roup and son, W. J. Roup, of Joseph, passed through the city last night enroute to Boise, Idaho, where they expect to buy property and locate. The Roups are pioneer settlers of Wal-lowa valley and this is the first time the elder Mr. Roup has been out of the valley for 15 years.

Joha Alden was down from Starkey Tuesday and took home with him a thoroughbred Berkshire pig purchased from Blockland Bros. Mr. Alden states that spring has finally made its appearance at Starkey, stock are being turned out to pasture and while the feeding season was long there were fewer losses than common.

Hon. D. A. McAlister was in the city Tuesday and publicly announced his candidacy for congress on the Democratic ticket. If Mr. McAlister really desires the nomination we do not presume he will have any opposition. As this district is so largely republican that there is seldom much of a contest for this office on the democratic ticket.

The Director of the Willamette Glee Club has arranged a delightful program for the season of 1904, a program that is emphatically entertaining from beginning to end. The Glee Club always sings best to a full house, so if you want the best there is in the club, induce your friends to attend. The concert occurs next Friday night at the Opera House.

Congratulations.

Mr. John H. Cullom, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a factures congratulations to the manufacturer of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results." For Sale by all druggists.

How Can I Cure My INDIGESTION?

THIS IS A QUESTION THAT HAS BEEN ASKED TIME AND AGAIN BY HUNDREDS—yes, thousands and tens of thousands of people. There is but one way to do this; namely, relieve the Stomach of its nervous strain—rest it; and at the same time assist the Stomach and Digestive Organs in Digesting and Assimilating Sufficient Food to Rebuild the Tissues Supporting the Organs Involved. There is but one remedy that will do this, and that remedy is KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. If you want to know more about Kodol, come in and
