Mr Paul, wife of Capt Paul has arrived from Salt Lake, and is visiting with the family of Mr Rosenbaum, Mrs Paul recently returned from Paris.

The fine weather and smooth street have caused the bicycles to be brought from their winter quarters, and an auto mobile was seen on the streets yesterday.

The pungent odor of burning leaves salutes the nostrils of the pedestrian or suburban streets these days. Front and back yards are being cleaned up and spring "is come."

John Rockman has purchased the Oldsmobile formerly owned by Dr Phy, of Hot Lake. The trip from his farm to La Grande will now be a pleasure to Mr Rockman.

The center of attraction on Adams Ave, seems to be the show window in the Red Cross Drug store where the cast of characters for Old Kentucky is displayed.

Presiding Elder Gibson will officiate in administering the sacrament of the Lord's Supper in the Methodist church this morning. He will also preach at Island City this evening.

The big street scraper, having completed a good job on the business streets was at work yesterday on the suburban streets and it will not be long until the streets of the entire city are in first class condition.

The La Grande Mercantile Co is doing a laid office business these days and another clerk has been added to the force. The friends of Miss Margaret Porter can now find her there behind the counter at this already popular mercantile establishment.

So many orders came in for changes in ads last night that it was impossible to get them all set. The Rain-ow store Newlin Drug Co, La Grande Cash Co, and the La Grande Investment Co were those whose changes could not be made. Watch their ads in the next issue.

The subject of Dr G W Silke's sermons in the Presbyterian church today will be "Truth in its Beauty" Part 1 at the morning service. "The Beauty of Truth in its Perfection" Part 2 at the evening service. "The Beauty of Truth in its Power."

Special agent H L Alexander, returned yesterday from a weeks trip through the Milton and Preewater country. He reports that land veritably overflowing with milk and honey. He also discovered that a considerable quantity of wood has been cut on government land without the consent of Uncle Sam.

Little Ma'ge "a Southern Rose" in the play "In Old Kentucky" is one of the greatest sourette characters ever seen on the English speaking stage, having been played by Laura Burt, Etta Ryan, Edna May, and several actresses who are at present starring in their own companies. In Old Kentucky is pronounced by the press and public as the representative American drama having for played 360 nights at the academy of music in New York and today is in its 15 successful year on the road, a record that no other play has ever made. The character of Little Ma'ge will be played by Ethel Reid, and it is safe to say it will be well portrayed.

Add years to life and life to years
By the scientific application of genuine Osteopathy years are added to one's life and life is added to one's years. Treatment is adopted to the requirements of all cases from infancy to infirm age; it is non-drugs, soothing and effectual in removing the cause which lies back of all symptoms hence it goes deeper than drug methods and is unequalled in restoring stubborn, chronic cases which have baffled other medical practitioners. To investigate Osteopathy is to be convinced of its merits. In this age of scientific advancement no one is justified in remaining ignorant of its basic principles and remarkable cures. Go to a competent Osteopath for facts consultation is usually without charge and he will be pleased to give you literature explanatory of this system.
