A FEW OBSERVATIONS BY OUR REPORTERS

J M Church is in Portland.
Mrs Ellis Cranhall is visiting friends in Elgin.

Dr Biggers spent Saturday in Baker City.

Haines is to have a new hardware store and a new drug store.

Adney Roger's bright red express wagon is another sign of spring.

The weather man has been delivering the real goods the past few days.

Elmer Bishop and Walter Fay, of Elgin, are in the city on business.

Dr F W Whiting, an Elgin physician, is registered at the Sommer Hotel.

J A Arbuclie is having the Model Restaurant treated to a fresh coat of paint.

A washout near Bingham Springs delayed No 6 several hours yesterday morning.

J F Baker left last evening for Portland to attend the republican state convention.

Mrs L H Russell who has been very low for the past ten days is slowly recovering.

W M Wiltsie and wife, of Elgin, are in the city on land office business and visiting friends.

Mrs Frank Pike and Mrs Beaubier, of Tolocast spent the day in the city yesterday.

If you think business is not picking up ask the deliverymen. They are the first to notice the increase.

E W Bartlett went to Baker City last Saturday to see how politics are manipulated in Baker County.

H B Haisin, undertaker for E Andross & Co has moved his residence to the corner of 6th and O St.

Chas Olsen, the well known Miller who is now with the Imbler mill, spent Sunday in the city.

The Basket School to have been given by the ladies of the W R C has been postponed until some future date.

The hills close to town Sunday were dotted with pleasure seekers who returned laden with pretty flowers.

Street Commissioner Earl Jones is at the Hot Lake where he has been several days trying to regain his health.

Geo Mapes and Chas Hug, of Elgin, delegates to the republican state convention left for Portland last evening.

G M Richey was a passenger last evening enroute to Portland where he will attend the republican state convention.

Geo W Peach was in the city Monday stating the river was overflowing his meadow also a portion of his winter wheat.

The report was current Sunday that the high water in the river had weakened the Grande Ronde Lumber Co's dam at Perry, but fortunately it proved to be only a false rumor.

Mrs David Bay left Monday for Summerville to be at the bedside of Mrs Will Couch who is very low with consumption and practically all hope of her recovery has been abandoned.

A phone message from Perry states that the water is higher than it has been for years, but that there is no danger of an overflow, as the flood gates have not even yet been entirely opened.

Mr and Mrs J H Rinehart who have been in Portland for the past five months have returned to their Summerville home. Mr Rinehart's health has greatly improved and he is looking hale and healthy.

Jos Palmer, president of the light and power Co states that the river Sunday night was higher than any time since they built the new dam at Or O'Dell, between six and seven feet of water passing over the dam.

The Ladies of the Home Mission Society of the M E church South met at Mrs Crippins Monday afternoon, refreshments were served, and all had a good social time, and a neat sum for their treasury was the result.

Repair work has commenced on the Hotel Foley. The bar has been temporarily located in the vacant store room east of the hotel office and the dining room will be located where the bar, barber shop, etc are located now.

J S Houx, of Cove was in the city yesterday with load of early Triumph potatoes which he disposed of to Romig & Staples. These potatoes are something out of the ordinary and parties desiring seed potatoes will do well to try this variety.

The Wallowa county delegates to the state republican convention, including G W Hyatt, J H Dobbie, E A Holmes, W H Allen, J A Rumble, and F A Clarke, passed through the city last night on their way to Portland. W R Holmes and A C Miller also accompanied the delegation.

Marshal Rayburn swore out a warrant for the arrest of Scott Goodall yesterday, charging him with cruelty to a horse which he drives to his delivery wagon. The animal in question is badly crippled and in no condition to be worked. Mr Goodall had been warned by the Marshal to cease driving the horse to which he paid no attention.

Marshal Rayburn is to be commended for his human action in the matter.

The World's Fair Route

Those anticipating an Eastern trip, or a visit to the Louisiana Purchase exposition at St. Louis, cannot afford to overlook the advantages offered by the Missouri Pacific Railway, which, on account of its various routes and gateways, has been appropriately named "The World's Fair Route."

Passengers from the Northwest take the Missouri Pacific trains from Denver or Pueblo with the choice of either going direct through the Kansas City, via Wichita, Fort Scott and Pleasant Hill.

Two trains daily from Denver and Pueblo to St. Louis without change, carrying all classes of modern equipment, including electric lighted observation parlor cafe dining cars. Ten daily trains between Kansas City and St. Louis.

Write, or call on W. C. McBride, General Agent, 124 Third st, Portland for detailed information and illustrated literature.

Notice to Water Consumers

How Can I Cure My INDIGESTION?

THIS IS A QUESTION THAT HAS BEEN ASKED TIME AND AGAIN BY HUNDREDS—yes, thousands and tens of thousands of people. There is but one way to do this, namely, relieve the Stomach of its nervous strain—rest it; and at the same time assist the Stomach and Digestive Organs in Digesting and Assimilating Sufficient Food to Rebuild the Tissues Supporting the Organs Involved. There is but one remedy that will do this, and that remedy is KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. If you want to know more about Kodol, come in and
