Not too Early

Arrangements have been perfected whereby persons coming over the O. R. & N. to visit the Lewis and Clark fair next year will be granted stop-over privilege at all Oregon points on excursion tickets. It is believed that many of those who will at that time visit the fair will take advantage of the opportunity thus offered to see the various portions of the state and their resources. In this way the visitors will have a chance to come in contact with the people of the state and see for themselves what Oregon has to offer the prospective settler. This will result in material aid to the settling and building up of the country.

La Grande should be alive to this opportunity and put forth every effort to bring the opportunity here offered to the attention of those who may stop-over in this city. And it is not too early to begin making preparations for the immigration campaign. Doubtless every town along the route will profit by the unusual travel and the revenue that put forth the greatest effort will reap the greatest benefit.

The World's Fair Route
Those anticipating an Eastern trip, or a visit to the Louisiana Purchase exposition at St. Louis, cannot afford to overlook the advantages offered by the Missouri Pacific Railway, which, on account of its various routes and gateways, has been appropriately named "The World's Fair Route."

Passengers from the Northwest take the Missouri Pacific trains from Denver or Pueblo with the choice of either going direct through the Kansas City, via Wichita, Fort Scott and Pleasant Hill.

Two trains daily from Denver and Pueblo to St. Louis without change, carrying all classes of modern equipment, including electric lighted observation parlor, cafe dining cars. Ten daily trains between Kansas City and St. Louis.

Write, or call on W. C. McBride, General Agent, 124 Third St, Portland for detailed information and illustrated literature. 17

Get hold of a Rock Island System folder, turn to the map, study it a minute or two, and you will get a fair idea of the immensity of the territory traversed by this Company's lines—Minnesota on the North; Texas on the South; Alabama on the East; Colorado on the West.

If you are going East, now or later, will you not kindly give me an opportunity of quoting rates and telling you what our through car arrangements are? Three routes East—via Denver, Omaha and St. Paul.
