

MONEY SAVED!

Our policy of doing business differs from the average dry goods merchant. It is still the custom on first showing of the seasons goods to mark the offerings at a good stiff figure, then later on to sell the same material at reduced prices—we give the cut price at the start. Right now we can show you the swellest line of millinery

Spring and summer dress goods, all new and up-to-date. Sals Royal Blue shoes, every pair guaranteed. Ribbons, etc., in fact everything to be found in a dry goods store. You can get your goods now, have them made up and be wearing them. Later on other dealers will have cut prices to almost compete with ours. DON'T FORGET our great bargains in jewelry—we can save you half on it. Expert jeweler in charge who does all kinds of work, and guarantees it.

KEEP CHICKENS UP

Now that the season for gardening is at hand and many residents of the city will have their garden patches, the Observer would suggest that owners of chickens provide a yard in which to confine them. It is not at all neighborly to allow your chickens to roam at will over your neighbor's garden, scratching out the seeds that have with great care, labor and expense been planted, and destroy flower beds that the good house wife has so laboriously cultivated in the endeavor to beautify her door yard and enjoy some of the beauties of nature. In this connection we are reminded of the prayer once offered in a Free Methodist prayer meeting by an aged brother whose neighbor's hogs had been allowed to destroy his corn, which was after this fashion: "We have been stealing, Lord; We have been stealing with our swine, Lord; for the great sin we beseech thy pardon Lord." His neighbor was present and it is needless to say that the hogs were put up Monday morning. Don't steal with your chickens but keep them up and thus avoid provoking your neighbor to a quarrel. Neighborhood quarrels are very disagreeable and chickens running at large during gardening is one of the greatest causes for them.

WHAT IS DEMOCRACY?

Democratic orators, leaders and editors are so persistent in referring to "Jeffersonian Democracy" as a thing to be revered, observed and practiced that the Observer is induced to inquire of these gentlemen, "What do you mean by Jeffersonian Democracy?" If Jeffersonian Democracy is a deniable thing we would be glad to see the definition in print or at least be told in what book, public library or official document it may be found if it ever has been put in print.

Thomas Jefferson was elected president of the United States in 1800 and held that position two terms. Two years prior thereto his bosom friend, James Madison, drew the famous Virginia Resolutions of 1798 which became the basis of States Rights and strict construction of constitution theories. The fundamental doctrine of the democratic party from that date until appomatox sealed its doom as a political tenant. The first democratic platform and the one on which Jefferson was elected president in 1800 and 1804, incorporated the spirit of the Virginia Resolutions. This platform had eleven resolutions. Which, if any of them, may be styled Jeffersonian Democracy?

Plant shade trees. There is nothing which adds so much to the appearance of a city as a few shade trees. Do not make the mistake of planting them on the outside of your property for when they are out on the street they only make a place for foot pads to hide and wait for the pedestrian, and then it is almost impossible to grow them there as the destroying angels in the form of the town cow is due to get out just about often enough to keep them chewed down to the boxes which are supposed to protect them.

Grande Ronde valley is having a little taste of what high water will do, but our troubles are not worth mentioning when compared with the trouble high water is causing in Baker county. Twenty-three men came near losing their lives by the flood yesterday and the end is not yet.

Residents in the vicinity of Geddes Bros' grocery store on N Fir street are anxiously waiting for the city or adjacent property owners to fill in that lake that seems never to go dry. A visitor in that part of the city yesterday thought the river had broken out at that point.

It would be hard to conceive a meaner man than the one who would deliberately pass by a horse which had fallen down in the harness and not offer to render any assistance. This occurred on the streets of La Grande yesterday.

The county seat campaign is now on but there is scarcely a voter in the county who is not conversant with the conditions and knows that La Grande is the proper place for the county seat.

The Democratic State Convention meets in Portland next Tuesday.

Stillwell & Vandermulen

Wish to announce that on Saturday February 27 they will open a first class Meat Market in the old Stand

"THE BOSS" Corner Railroad & Fir St. We will always keep on hand a good stock of fresh and smoked meats, sausage, fish and poultry, and will be glad to meet all my old patrons and as many new ones. All orders will receive our prompt attention. Phone 481

Four of a kind—is a pretty good hand at cards. But at the butcher's is the kind that comes, not the four. We keep only one kind of meat, the kind that's fresh, healthy, tender and juicy. Buy your steaks and chops here, and you'll always be right. Our stock is well fed and properly cared for. Consequently our meat has a delicious flavor.

Early Risers

THE FAMOUS LITTLE PILLS.

For quick relief from Biliousness, Sick Headache, Torpid Liver, Jaundice, Dizziness, and all troubles arising from an inactive or sluggish liver, DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled. They act promptly and never gripe. They are so dainty that it's a pleasure to take them. One or two act as a mild laxative; two or four act as a pleasant and effective cathartic. They are purely vegetable and absolutely harmless. They tonic the liver.
