My Lady's Jewels
Certainly add to her attractiveness. The poet who wrote that "Branny" had no dollars. He certainly showed little sense. And if his lady love had seen my display of Dainty Broaches
She would not have believed him. For a woman naturally loves to adorn herself. No one can blame her after they visit my store. Such beautiful things at so moderate a cost were never seen before. There are things for men too. Just come in and see how much more I could have said about them.

Whence? Why? Where?

"Where did I come from?" Straight from God.
Like the shell from the sea, or the sprout from the sod.
You are part of it—no less, no more—So stop your queries, and trust and adore.
"What did I come for?" You came for a cause,
To strengthen the purpose, to better the laws.
Like the rivet or bolt of a great machine,
You are all important, though all unseen.
"Where am I going to?" Never mind; Just follow the signboard that says, "Be kind."
And do the duty that nearest lies,
For that is the pathway to Paradise.
—Ella Wheeler Wilson.

The Liquor Dealers' Association is fighting the local option amendment through the labor unions. Several of the unions are permitting their names to be used as cat's paws for the liquor dealers. The cigarmakers and the bartenders are especially active in fighting the local option amendment. The first principle underlying all legitimate labor unions is that of justice and liberty and it is not believed that any thinking workmen will be influenced against this amendment by the narrow plea of the liquor dealers of Portland. The local option law gives to each precinct the right to vote on the liquor traffic. It simply gives the voters of a certain district the right to choose their home surroundings. It is nothing more nor less than the sacred principle of the majority rule put into practice. No fair-minded laboring man can deny the justice of the majority rule. Where a minority of the people should desire saloons, their votes would so decide and where a certain community happened to be opposed to the liquor traffic, they would have a right to keep it out. The present law gives the three members of the county court full authority to decide this matter arbitrarily in any community. As you love justice and popular government, you will vote for the local option amendment.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

A short trip through the highways and byways of LaGrande will convince almost anyone of the fact that LaGrande has more dogs to the square inch than any other city in the state. In fact there are altogether too many dogs for the good of the community. The city is entitled to some royalty on at least a part of those several hundred dogs which make night sleepless by their everlasting yelping, and the vegetables useless because of their frequent irrigation. The city council by ordinance, and the mayor by his message have declared that dogs are to be taxed and now it only remains for the authorities to get busy. Either get some dog tax or some dog scalps.

Every voter in this county will want to vote for Theodore Roosevelt next November for president. To do so without putting yourself and all your friends to a whole lot of extra and uncalled for trouble, register between now and the 14th, when the registration books close.

Register tomorrow. When election day comes you will want to vote and if you have not registered you will have all kinds of trouble to do so. It is a duty you owe to yourself and your country to register and vote. Register tomorrow. The time is short. Only a few days more remain.

The Atlanta Journal remarks that the Democratic party may be defeated if it doesn't stand for Bryan and that it certainly will be if it does. Practically that it will be dashed if it does and dashed if it doesn't.

The suggestion of the St. Louis papers to "save your money and visit the fair" is all right when supplemented by the suggestion to save enough to get out after you get here.

General Kuropatkin is accusing General Zaslitch of the defeat on the Yalu, notwithstanding the willingness of the Japs. to admit that they are ready to shoulder the blame.

The Mayor of Council Bluffs Ia, raided the gambling dens in person and ran in the whole layout pursuant to orders of Council. This is one of the "Council Bluffs" that went.

The suggestion of General Kuropatkin when he started from St. Petersburg that he wouldn't have time to take prisoners, is about the truest thing he ever said.

Notwithstanding Uncle Sam, in person, has taken charge of the Panama Canal, Mr. Bryan will continue to insist that the thing will be heavily watered.

The city council meets next Wednesday night to open bids on the $25,000 bond issue for the new city hall.

The LaGrande Daily Observer has changed from a morning to an evening paper. The Observer is a good paper and improves with age.—Wallowa County Democrat.

Register. Register today. Whatever you do, register before Saturday night.

Four of a kind—is a pretty good hand at cards. But at the butcher's is the kind that counts, not the four. We keep only one kind of meat, the kind that's fresh, healthy, tender and juicy. Buy your steaks and chops here, and they'll always be right. Our stock is well-laid and properly cared for. Consequently our meat has a delicious flavor.
