GOOD FOR THE GOVERNOR.

Governor Chamberlain on May 21 issued a proclamation offering a reward of $2,500 for the arrest and conviction, or for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the murderer or murderers of J. C. Conn, who was killed in Lake County on March 4 last.

At the same time he offered a reward of $300 for the arrest and conviction of each and every one of the men who destroyed or participated in the destruction of 2,500 sheep in Lake County in April of this year.

In sending out his proclamation to the county official he also wrote a letter to each urging them to use energetically every power which the law gives them to apprehend and bring to justice the wrong-doers.

The Governor is right in using every power which the Statutes and constitution of Oregon gives him to stamp out the disgraceful war range that is raging in South Eastern Oregon in violation of law, decency and humanity.

The constitution of Oregon not only gives the Governor ample power to suppress the law breaking now going on in the bunch grass regions, but it must emphatically declare that he shall use it when occasion demands. Section nine of article five of the Oregon constitution reads:

"The Governor shall be commander in chief of the military and naval forces of this state, and may call out such forces to execute the laws." Section ten of the same article to further provide against lawlessness reads: "He (The Governor) shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed."

The outrages upon persons and property that have been perpetrated during this range war, unpunished and without any apparent effort toward punishment, for the past two years have disgraced the whole state and the Observer is glad that the Governor has resolved to put a stop to such lawlessness. The Observer confidently hopes the Governor will persevere the course he has so nobly begun with the sincerity of a Washington, the iron will of a Jackson, the unflinching firmness of a Lincoln and the tireless energy and enthusiasm of a Roosevelt, until the foul stain upon the escutcheon of our state, caused by the heretofore unpunished outrage perpetrated over a wide expanse of our area, be wiped out, and Oregon, an stand erect, look the world in the face, and unblushing declare that it is a land of freedom, wherein all rights are protected, all laws enforced, and all violators of law are punished.

The county seat question is being discussed in all portions of the county and the more interest there is taken reveals the fact that the majority of the people realize that under the present conditions, they will get a court house free for a term of fifteen years and that the expense of removing the records will not cost the tax payers anything and that La Grande is the proper place, the most economical point in the county to do county business.
