L. Oldenburg is home from his hill farm where he has completed planting about 60 acres of winter apple trees.

Spraying is the order of the day. And woe be to the colden moth that shows himself and undertakes to bug apples.

While our trees are not over loaded there is a well distributed crop of fruit of all kinds and Fruitdale will be in line this season with her usual amount of fine fruit.

Our best field presents a scene of hustle and industry hoeing, thinning and cultivating. With a good large and an excellent stand.

Do not forget the inter school entertainment this evening at the Opera house. It will be well worth attending.

Ditch foreman E. Z. Carbine has the necessary repairs done and a good flow of water in the ditch. And the usual growth over water will soon begin.

Do not forget the base ball tomorrow. The grounds are in first class condition and every thing points to a first class game. Come out and see the boy get the pair of shoes.

The Presbyterian festival at Mrs. Ansons last evening was generously patronized. The beautiful moonlight evening made the event especially delightful and the immense throng thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Every day adds new development to the work necessary to the construction of our new city hall. This morning a visit revealed a new and convenient tool, lime house and office for contractor Mars, with a new phone already installed. The phone No. 1751 which will receive a prompt answer to all business calls.

Peter McDonald and J. H. Dobbins, republican nominee for joint senator and joint representative are in the city today. Mr. McDonald is well known having been a resident of this valley for many years. Mrs. Elizabeth Judd and granddaughter Miss Mollie Judd of Eagle Creek, Clackamas county Oregon are visiting at C. D. Huffman's this week. Mrs. Judd is an Aunt of Mrs. Huffman. They are delighted with the place. And are astonished to find good eating apples in our cellars as Willamette Valley apples are long since a thing of the past.

Congratulations.

Mr. John H. Colloom, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a factious congratulatory to the manufacturer of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results." For Sale by all druggists.
