YOUNG MEN TO THE FRONT

It is now shown that Union county has come to its senses, got over its factional madness so that it is possible to elect a young man to office regardless of whether he lives in Union or La Grande.

Happily this is now changed, and for the first time in a long series of years the young Republicans of Union county can feel assured that places of honor and profit are as open to them in Union county as in other Republican counties in Oregon.

This is a healthy political condition and one that the Observer has been strenuously working for months, for a party that ignores the rights and feelings of its young men cannot reasonably hope to prosper, for it ought not to prosper.

Now that our young men have an equal show with the graying beards and bald heads, it is to be hoped that they will come forward and prepare themselves by study to take a place in the front ranks and body battle for the principles of the party of Lincoln

Of course La Grande is going to celebrate. The celebration will be worth saying up nights to see. The committee on arrangements is going to work in the morning and nothing will be left undone which will in any way increase the pleasure of the day.

The recent County Seat victory demonstrates what La Grande can do when the entire town pulls together. Let this be a lesson and from this time on let there be no division. We should pull together and then and then only will La Grande grow as it should and soon become the leading town in Eastern Oregon.

Under the local option law just passed sec. 3 provides the first elections shall be held on the first Monday in November of the year and thereafter only on the first Monday of every year, and petitions shall be filed not less than 30 or more than 90 days before the day of election.

The celebration last night over the result of the election gave all a chance to let their enthusiasm effuse. It started in a simple manner but before long there were hundreds on the streets and enjoying the bonfires and the band.

The re-election of Superintendent Hockenberry for the third time and the retention of practically all the former teachers, means the efficiency of our public school will be maintained.

Get to work on the Fourth of July celebration. We will certainly have a celebration that will give the citizens of this city and county something to think of for the next forty years.

No the work on the city hall has not stopped but contractor Mars is still doing business on the hill and will continue to do so until he completes his contract.

We have all been working for the interest of the city and county. Let us continue the good work and the way this town and county will grow will be a pleasure to behold.

There is no question but what Union county is republican, and the republicans of this county can now see the benefits of harmonious action.
