Westland, Kans. May 5 1902 Ballard Snow Liniment Co. Your Snow Liniment cured an old sore on the side of my chin that was supposed to be a cancer. The Republicans on the county ticket will probably sweep out of the wreck of the election the school superintendent to teach the rising republicans how to "vote straight" hereafter and the coroner who will hold a suitable inquest on his brethren who have fallen—Valonia Chieflain

HAVE YOU A COUGH? A dose of Ballard's Orchestral Syrup will relieve it. Have you a cold? A dose of Herbine at bed time and frequent small doses of the Orchestral Syrup during the day will cure it. Try it for whooping cough, or asthma, for consumption, for hoarse throats. Mrs. Joe Mottrich, 327 E 1st St. east, Hatchinson, Kans writes: "I have used Ballard's Orchestral Syrup in my family for 5 years, and find it the best and most palatable medicine I ever used." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Newlin Drug Co.

The Union republican suggests that the Australian ballot law be changed to print the straight tickets on the ballot so that marking one cross at the head of the ticket will be the only mental effort needed in voting. There is too little effort required of the voter now, to get the best results. Instead of making it more easy to swallow the whole ticket, there should be still more technicalities to bring out the highest mental effort on the part of the voter. The ballot must be safeguarded with more obstacles to defeat the ring rule and straight ticket nonsense. Instead of reducing the mental requirements of the voter, election laws should make them still more stringent, so intelligence will be brought more and more into execution in selecting public servants. If a man cannot select his candidates intelligently from the present arrangement of the ballot, nothing should be done by law, to further encourage ignorance. If anything the law should encourage higher qualifications for voting by making more mental effort necessary—East Oregonian.

THAT Tired Feeling? If you are fatigued, depressed and incapable for work, it indicates that your liver is out of order. Herbine will assist nature to throw out harmful acids, rheumatism and ailments due to nervousness and indigestion, and will assist you in regaining your normal health. J. J. Hubbard, Emporia, Kansas, writes, March 22 1902: "I have used Herbine for the past two years. It has done me more good than all the doctors. When I feel tired and have that tired feeling that is a disease, the first thing I do is to take a bottle of Herbine."
