PIONEERS ADJOURN

After Spending One of The Most Pleasant Days in History of the Association.

Pioneers adjourned one of the happiest and most memorable days since their organization.

After spending a day full of good comradeship, filled to the brim with pleasure, and a day which seemed providentially beautiful for their purpose the Pioneers wound up the business part of their program yesterday afternoon by electing officers for the ensuing year.

Mr Joe Baker was placed in nomination for president as were several others but all refused to have their names placed before the society with the exception of Mr Baker. and the motion was then made and seconded that the election of Mr Baker be made unanimous and that the secretary be instructed to cast the vote of the whole society for him. This motion was carried without a dissenting voice, and Mr Baker was declared elected president.

Next came the election of a secretary, and Mr Henry Rinehart was nominated for that place, and at this point, a motion was made and carried to close the nominations for secretary Mr Rinehart rose then to say that he was getting old, that he had held the position for some time and that he thought they ought to elect a better man to fill this place. But the Pioneers were of the opinion that they could find no better man, and he was elected by acclamation.

Then, and lastly, came the election of a Historian for the society, and Mrs Mary Eaton was elected in the same manner as was Mr Rinehart before that estimable lady was aware of the fact.

Although there was as much fun as is seen at a Democratic convention yet here all was harmony, no friction, no opposition or conflict, and all went "merry as a wedding bell."

The meeting then adjourned in an informal manner, every one desiring to go by leaving when they were ready, and after many handshakings, after many recollections of the day which were indelibly imprinted on their memories, after expressing fond hopes that they would all meet again together at the next reunion, they departed for their homes completely satisfied with the manner in which the day was spent and at peace with all the world.

Burton Weds.

Norfolk Neb., June 29—Miss Winifred Hartley, a teacher, and Congressman Burton, representative from Idaho, were married at noon today. They left immediately for Moscow, Idaho.

More Deported

Victor Colorado, June 29—Thirty nine men affiliated with the Western Federation of Miners who have been arrested at various times since the sixth instant were deported tonight. In the number were several men arrested at the time of the Dunsmuir expedition.

ADVICES SCARCE

News Concerning The Progress of the Eastern War is Very Unsatisfactory.

St Petersburg, June 29—No further advices from the front had been received up to night though news from General Kuropatkin and Admiral Witthoef was eagerly awaited. The usual rumors of heavy fighting pervaded the city but they were based wholly upon the fact the armies are in close touch.

Though it appears now from Kuropatkin's tactics, the heavy engagement may be deferred for some days, it is possible the Japanese may rush matters, but it is not generally expected here that Kuropatkin will give battle until he reaches a position of his own selection.

It may clarify the military situation to explain that the country in which the armies are now coming into contact consists of a series of mountain chains running parallel with the railway alongside of which the Russians are falling back as the Japanese advance. Fen Shui, Mo Tien and Dalin are at passes which take their names from the mountains over which they run. Kuroki, who has heretofore been east of these mountains is advancing to the westward from Siu Yen through a very rough country and his columns must traverse the passes named before emerging into the more open country along the railway approximately abreast of Ta Teoh Kiao, Hai Cheng and Liao Yang.

The Russian outposts and Japanese advances are now in close touch at all these passes. Kuropatkin is now moving slowly northward along the railway and wherever he makes his stand there will be precipitated what is expected to be the decisive battle of the campaign.

In the meantime Oku is advancing along the railroad on the heels of the withdrawing Russians. He is backed up by a powerful army.

How large a portion of his army he has detached to join Kuroki has not been developed but probably large enough to add material severity to the fighting before the Russians finally abandon the mountains.

There is the greatest eagerness for news from Port Arthur but nothing concerning the situation there was known up to tonight.

SHARED HIS ROOM

And Waked Up to Find Himself Minus A Considerable Sum of Money.

W H Sullivan has just about lost all confidence in the human family. A long with his loss of confidence in human nature he has lost some two hundred and sixty five dollars. The story of this double loss is short but the effect is lasting.

Mr Sullivan is the proprietor of the Brewery Saloon at Sumpter and came to La Grande yesterday to purchase a car load of beer from Mr Roeb. Before he had been in the city long he met a man who he had once met in Sumpter. This man is a cook by profession and out of work and funds. All this he explained to Mr Sullivan who offered to share his room with the before mentioned cook.

That was very kind of Mr Sullivan and the stranded knight of the range accepted the generous offer. All went well until morning.

Before retiring Mr Sullivan left instructions with the night clerk at the Foley to call him at six o'clock in the morning. Promptly at the appointed hour, the clerk made the call, but there was no necessity for this trouble Mr Sullivan was up and doing. He had noticed that his bed fellow was conspicuous by his absence. The two hundred and sixty five plunks were also missing. Marshal Rayburn was notified of the occurrence and at once took steps to locate the missing man and money.

At 3:30 this afternoon Marshal Rayburn received word from Mesoham that his man was there and he and constable McLachlen left at once by team for the place and will probably return this evening with him.

Sunshine Circle.

The Sunshine Circle was entertained at the home of Sarah and Miriam Smith Tuesday afternoon. This is a new organization whose object is to scatter cheer and goodwill and incidentally to learn needlework. Ices and cakes were served, after which they repaired to the "merry-go-round." Those present were: Runa Bacon, Bessie Buehler, Mary and Leona Newlin, Margaret and Gladys Romig and Sarah and Miriam Smith.

G. A. R. TO MEET

Three Days Encampment Commences Tomorrow in Proebstel's Shady Grove.

Proebstel's grove on the balance of this week will be the center of attraction.

Quite a number of men are now employed in getting things in readiness for the three days G. A. R. encampment, which begins tomorrow.

The large tent is nestled under the shade of the tall trees, stands are being erected, platform and seats will be in their place and everything will be in condition.

This is an ideal camping ground which many will take advantage of. Acres of shade and water of easy access.

The big flag floats gently in the ever pleasant breeze and the mounted cannon certainly adds to the military spirit of the occasion.

The following is the outline of the three days program.

JUNE 30

There will be no formal exercises save from the registration of the old soldiers and pitching their tents. In the evening will be a big "camp fire" where many interesting experiences will be related.

JULY 1

This is G. A. R. day proper. The exercises begin promptly at 10 o'clock. The principal addresses will be made by J. E. Mayo, Asst. Adjt. Gen. and Earl Kilpatrick, followed by recitations and music. In the afternoon will be a business meeting which will include the election of officers and the selection of the location for the next reunion and in the evening there will be a rousing camp fire.

JULY 2

This is the day set aside for the W. R. G. and they have a very interesting program arranged, consisting of an address of Welcome by Mr. J. F. Baker, songs, flag drills and pantomimes.

The public is cordially invited to be present and enjoy all these meetings.

Big Sheep Shipment

One of the largest train loads of sheep that was ever in La Grande arrived here last evening from Elgin and the numerous "double deckers" containing the sheep seemed to occupy all the railroad tracks in the yard. The sheep were the property of Mr B F Saunders, and were brought from Elgin to this place from whence they will be shipped part to Soda Springs Idaho and part to Carter Wyoming. The number of the sheep is estimated at eleven thousand and they all seem in fine condition and the shipments will be made with little or no loss.

Prohibitionists.

Indianapolis Ind., Wednesday June 29—A thousand delegates and visitors to the National Prohibition Convention have distributed themselves among the small houses and hotels where no bars are maintained.

The nominations will be made on Thursday.

A letter written by General Miles to J. G. Woolley, of Chicago, and dated from Washington June 29, which was made public tonight is believed by National Chairman Stewart and others to eliminate General Miles from consideration as a candidate for president, though the Pennsylvania delegates and others who insist on General Miles nomination have made no statement.

The Chicago Store

No One Buys Drugs For Fun

No one sells them for amusement. It's a serious, important business on both sides. A drug store should have two missions: One, to furnish drugs that can be relied on, the other to furnish them for what they are worth. Drug stores exist for the public good. Knowledge, experience and progressive methods should mark their management. We endeavor to keep step with the progress of the age, to meet every requirement of the community, to conduct a store that shall stand for all that a drug store should. We wish to serve those who want accurate service, high grade drugs, and uniformly fair and courteous treatment.

NEWLIN DRUG CO.

WE HAVE A Peters Shoe FOR EVERY FOOT

Wear Diamonds On Your Feet

Not the glittering, glassy sort, but the leather kind. No sparklers ever set off to better advantage the hand of a bride than does a Diamond Brand Shoe the foot of a man.

No shoe fits like a Diamond Brand—and fit means more than comfort or beauty. It means WEAR.

A shoe that does not fit will not wear.

A shoe that does not fit is not comfortable.

A shoe that does not fit is not trim looking.
