

Half a Carload of New Wall Paper.

We have just received half a car load of the newest and latest wall paper. Half a carload means 20,000 rolls. This is more paper than any one firm ever thought of bringing into this county in a single season.

This paper is all for sale and must be sold this season. We have brought two first class paper hangers direct from Chicago, who are without doubt the most skillful workmen in Eastern Oregon, with the first class paper hangers already in our employ, give us the best working force in the Inland Empire.

Ms Jno. T. Ruff, a resident of Portland, paid our city a short visit Tuesday.

Prof. R. P. Tait, instructor of the Western Conservatory of Music at this place left this forenoon for Union.

Mr. Henry Pearson, of North Powder who was a pleasant visitor in the city yesterday, attending the Pioneers meeting, returned home this morning on train No. 6.

Mr. O. E. Pearson, a rancher from North Powder, who was in the city yesterday for the purpose of purchasing some machinery, returned to his home this forenoon. He reports that the frost has killed nearly all of the winter wheat in that section.

Engineer Traynor, who has had charge of the stationary engine of the O. R. & N. at this place, left last night for Portland, where he resides with his family.

Mrs. Robt. Nish, from Alberta, Canada, arrived in the city last evening to make this her permanent home. Mr. Nish who has been here for some time has bought a ranch at the end of 4th Street. Mrs. Nish was accompanied by her son-in-law, Mr. O'Bray, who will also make this his home.

Register E. W. Davis has made an exceptional good record on decisions rendered during his term of office. Out of a total number of 21 contest cases passed upon, 20 of his decisions have been confirmed by the commissioner of the general land office and final action has not been taken on the other one. It having been returned for specific information.

Editor Maxwell of the Union Scott came over on business between trains last evening.

The new improvements being made on the O. R. & N. freight depot adds greatly to the appearance of that section of the city.

Under a recent ruling the business hours of the United States Land Office in this city have been changed. The office from this time on will be closed at 1 o'clock on Saturdays of each week and will be kept open for the transaction of public business until 4:30 on other days throughout the week instead of 4 o'clock as has been the custom heretofore.

J. Wright, who has been visiting his daughter Mrs. C. L. Green of Seattle, the past two weeks returned this morning and will leave this afternoon for his home at Cove.

Dr. F. E. Moore, expects to leave Friday morning for Kansas City and the St. Louis fair to be away about a month. Mrs. Moore who has been east for a month past will return to La Grande with the doctor.

Mrs. Frank Levitt returned home last evening on passenger train No. 2 from Portland.

Mr. John Myers and wife, who attended the meeting of the Pioneers here yesterday, returned to their home at Union this morning on passenger train No. 6.

Mr. C. H. Erwin, the efficient and amiable agent of the O. R. & N. Railway, at Troutdale, stopped over on a visit to friends in the city last evening, and is on his way to Union in order to attend to his timber interests in that section of the country.

C. W. Fox, of Island City, who has been working in the mill at that place and his brother, F. M. Fox, who has been teaching school in Ladd Canyon departed last night to visit their parents and other relatives in Missouri, and also to attend the fair at St. Louis. Mr. C. W. Fox is anxious to keep in touch with the events and happenings in this part of the country while he is gone, and has ordered the Daily Observer sent to him during his two months absence.

A. E. Huff is hauling his lumber, some thirty thousand feet, to the Imbler planing mill to be surfaced. His building when completed will be one of the most handsome residences in Old Town.

Dr. Tracy Mason stopped over this morning to spend the day with his mother on his way home for Southern Idaho.

Mrs. L. D. Reavis entertains the Kaffa Klatch at her home Friday afternoon.

Mr. A. B. Conley and wife, of Lower Cove, are in the city today, and will leave tonight for a weeks visit.

Mr. Dick Smith of Nibley, is in town today on business, and reports that the frost has ruined about four hundred acres of wheat for him.

M. J. H. Willis of this city left this morning for Alice where he is going to be present at an old-fashioned barn raising on the ranch of his brother, Mr. E. A. Willis, near that place. A great number is expected to be present and Mr. Willis anticipates a very enjoyable time.

B. F. Bell is in the city today with a load of strawberries and owing to the fact the recent frost killed many of the young berries, the crop will be much shorter than anticipated also the season.

M. L. Carter was in the city today from his farm near Nibley. He states several farmers are cutting the frost bitten spots in their fields for hay.

At the council meeting Tuesday night all bids submitted were rejected. The plans will be changed somewhat and retold so as to come within the limit of the $25,000. As soon as the plans are altered a special meeting will be called by the mayor.

TO VISIT

THE EAST

Mr. L. B. Rinehart, of the clan of Rinehart, formerly of this place, but now residing at North Yakima Wash., was a pleasant visitor in the Observer office yesterday evening. He has been attending the reunion of the Rineharts at their stronghold near Summerville, but will leave here for Union today, and from thence will visit Vets., and afterwards will take an extended tour through the middle East, visiting Hot Springs Ark. St. Louis Mo. Chicago Ill and other places of interest.

The fact that Mr. Rinehart met a niece of his whom he had not seen for fifty years past, the eighth of April, goes to show what great influence the holding of these family reunions has to make the family ties stronger, to promote geniality and affection in the scattered families and increase the interest of each in the welfare of the other.
