

August Shoe Sale and Special Inducement Offer.

This Sale will be conducted along entirely new lines. Of course every shoe—Dunlop, Excepted—will be REDUCED in price, but I have many short lines which will be offered at LESS THAN COST in order to make room for our new fall stock. A novel feature of the sale will be FREE DISTRIBUTION OF SHOES to my customers. I will give one pair of $5.00 shoes and one pair of $3.50 shoes away during the month of August. Each purchaser to the amount of $1.00 will have an opportunity to receive one of these gifts. Call at the QUALITY SHOE STORE and learn complete details and also see the BARGAINS in Ladies', Men's and Childrens Shoes.

Half a Carload of New Wall Paper.

We have just received half a carload of the newest and latest wall paper. Half a carload means 20,000 rolls. This is more paper than any one firm ever thought of bringing into this county in a single season.

This paper is all for sale and must be sold this season. We have brought two first class paper hangers direct from Chicago, who are without doubt the most skillful workmen in Eastern Oregon, with the first class paper hangers already in our employ, gives us the best working force in the Inland Empire.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

Concerning People Who Come And go and Other Items of Local Interest.

Mrs. Matt Mitchell of the Cove, and Mrs. J. R. Forrest of this city are enjoying an outing at Wallowa Lake.

Mrs. Eva Andross, who has been very sick for several weeks, was able to sit up a few minutes for the first time today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Berry and Miss Fannie McKennon left this morning for Wallowa county where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Holmes.

Matt Mitchell, of the Cove, was a La Grande visitor today and states that most of his neighbors are about through haying and the crop has been very satisfactory.

Mr. Hendricks, the photographer, has purchased the property on 6th street formerly occupied by a gallery and will move his gallery which is situated on Adams Avenue thereto in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Causey, who have been spending several days in Portland returned home this morning.

Mr. F. Kellogg, of Minnesota, arrived a few days ago to visit his uncle J. R. Kellogg. This is their first meeting.

Miss Mary Heaverno, aged about 40 years, was pronounced insane yesterday afternoon and County Sheriff Poulnington immediately took her to the asylum at Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McCreary and children, of La Grande, were the guests of Mrs. A. A. Miller for a few days this week. Mr. McCreary and family are now camping at the head of Wallowa lake.—Herald.

County commissioner Blumenstein expects to leave in a few days for the St. Louis fair.

The La Grande Chronicle has suspended the evening edition and will devote their attention to their weekly edition.

The La Grande public school opens this year the second week in September.

A letter was received today from the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland where Mrs. Bolmer underwent an operation a few days ago, stating that she was slowly improving.

W. L. Tucker was an Observer caller from the valley this afternoon and states that the report of the threshing machines confirms the fact that wheat in some sections of the valley was injured by the frost.

W. R. Howard and wife of La Grande are in Pendleton visiting with Mr. Howard's brother, Rev. M. V. Howard, and with Mrs. Eliza Fraker, who is Mrs. Howard's mother. Mr. Howard has sold his farm in the Grand Ronde county and will probably locate again in Umatilla county where he resided many years on a Tutuilla farm. He has followed raising and general farming in the Grand Ronde as here, and will re-engage in the same occupation here when he finds a location.—East Oregonian.

Received His Bond

G. M. Richey received official notice of his appointment as Post Master of the La Grande post office this morning and also his bond. The bond will be filled out in a few days and shortly after he will receive his appointment.

Moves with Secrecy

A special telegram to the Oregon Journal, a Democratic paper from N. Y. Aug 5 reads: "For the first time since his selection as the Democratic presidential nominee Alton B. Parker left his home today. His plans have been attended by the most secrecy and his destination is known only to himself and to his secretary. The judge left on the 10:30 o'clock Kingston train."

A bulletin from Kingston announced that he had taken the north bound 11:30 train, but even then the curious of Escanaba did not guess his errand until news came from Albany that he had resigned his place on the bench.

Peaches

I wish to say to my friends and the public that I have a large crop of peaches this year. Our early Peaches will be ripe in about a week or 10 days from this time we can sell you a more juicy better flavored peach and cheaper than you can buy them after they have been shipped in from other parts. Then when you pay for 20 lbs you get 20 lbs good pound measure.
J. R. Kellogg.
