J W Dickey has returned after a few days in Baker City.

Geo. H Powers moved this week to La Grande.—Scout.

J O Henry is in Portland to attend a meeting of the board of Undertakers who are holding their annual meeting.

Rev E B Hayes is expected home this evening from the Presbytery which has just concluded its labors in Enterprise.

Mr. Guy E McCully left this morning for Joseph in response to a message informing him of the serious illness of his sister.

Miss Ethel Garded will leave for the west tonight after a few days visit in this city. Miss Ethel will resume her studies in vocal lessons.

The tea given by the ladies of the Methodist church at the home of Mrs. John Shea was well attended and the proceeds amounted to $12.

C W Ellsworth completed his work of tearing down the county jail last Tuesday and will be brought over the first of next week.

Mr and Mrs T H Boynton arrived last evening from Whitney and will make La Grande their home, again after an absence of several years.

The millinery opening of Mrs Forrest today was taken advantage of by many ladies who were shown a beautiful selection of the latest novelties in head wear.

M M Mardis and family, who have been residents of the valley the past six years, leave this evening for Pinehurst, Idaho, where they will make their future home.

Mr Gust, proprietor of the fruit packing house arrived from Montana this morning and has about decided to build another large brick storage house just west of his present building.

Rev. Carroll Ghent, pastor of the Elgin Baptist church, will begin a series of meetings at the Pumpkin ridge school house Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock to continue through the week.

The surveying party that has been surveying the route of the new proposed electric railroad in Union county has about completed their work in this part of the county.—Elgin Recorder.

The Rev. Mr. Warren of Heppner will be here visiting his son and will officiate and preach at St. Peter's Episcopal Church in this city tomorrow at 11 o'clock. All persons are invited to attend this service.

Wm Grant returned last evening from the Presbyterian Presbytery, where he presented the call of Rev. E B Hays pastor of the church in this city which was accepted and the installation ceremony will take place in the near future.

Last Excursion To The World's Fair

The demand for sleeping car space in the Denver & Rio Grande's popular through tourist excursions to the St Louis Fair having been so great, three such excursions will be run on the next and last selling dates—October 3, 4 and 5. On each of these days a special tourist excursion will be run from Portland without change of cars over the "Scenic Line of the World." October 3 there will also be run a special Pullman excursion. These cars will make stops en route at Salt Lake City and Denver, affording excursionists an opportunity of viewing the various points of interest about these cities. The daylight ride through the heart of the Rockies—God's art gallery of nature is the grandest across the American continent.

Write W C McBride, 124 Third street, Portland, Or., at once for particulars and sleeping car reservations. These being the last days upon which tickets will be sold at reduced rates travel will be particularly heavy.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

Concerning People Who Come and go and Other Items of Local Interest.

The public schools of Union opened with an attendance of 340.

Mrs. David Clark, of the Cove, is over visiting her sister, Mrs. A L Richardson.

Mrs Rev. W J Harvey and son, of Halley, Idaho, arrived this morning to visit her parents, the Rev. J D Gillilan and wife.

Dr. Geo. O'Connor, formerly of Cornucopia but now a prominent real estate broker at La Grande paid the city a visit yesterday.—Baker City Herald.

Judge Eakin is over from Union looking up matters prior to the October term of circuit court. He states that indications now point to a very light docket.

There is one thing noticeable about the fruit now being shipped out of this section by A I Gale—it has the "Union, Oregon," brand on every box. This is as it should be.—Republican.

T H Crawford is moving his law office to La Grande. As Mr. Crawford is in the head row of Oregon's foremost attorneys, his removal will be a considerable loss to Union, and we are truly sorry that he could not see his way clear to remain a citizen of our town.—Scout.

Uncle Jimmie Reynolds made this office a pleasant call yesterday and left two branches loaded with plums. Or to be more correct one each of plums and prunes. They were loaded as full as the fruit could stick and n't good sized. One was the Weeping Willow plum and the other was a Poor Man's Prune. They were grown on the E Z Carbine place in fruitdale and are about the finest samples of fruit we have seen this season.

How Can I Cure My INDIGESTION?

THIS IS A QUESTION THAT HAS BEEN ASKED TIME AND AGAIN BY HUNDREDS—yes, thousands and tens of thousands of people. There is but one way to do this; namely, relieve the Stomach of its nervous strain—rest it; and at the same time assist the Stomach and Digestive Organs in Digesting and Assimilating Sufficient Food to Rebuild the Tissues Supporting the Organs Involved. There is but one remedy that will do this, and that remedy is KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. If you want to know more about Kodol, come in and
