The city council will meet this evening.

J. I. Myers and wife of Haines are in the city on a brief visit.

Senators Pierce and McDonald were La Grande visitors yesterday.

Dan Bradshaw, wife and son Roy left this morning for Kansas on a visit.

Mrs. Fred Bock and Mrs. Henderson left last evening for a few days visit in Portland.

Have you secured your tickets for the "Texas Steer" which takes place in the Opera House tonight?

Hon. Justice Wade and wife of Summerville, returned last night from a five days visit in Walls Walls.

Remember the double medal contest under the auspices of the W O F U at the Central church tonight. The admission is only ten cents.

Mr. E E Walt of Hillgard was a visitor in the city today. Mr. Walt and his wife will leave in a few days for Illinois, their old home, where they will reside in the future.

Mr. Kay, of the Salem woolen mill was in the city last evening on his way to Wallowa county to purchase wool. Mr. Kay is also prominently mentioned as the next speaker of the House.

J C Ardrey left this morning to look over Eagle valley with a view of purchasing a fruit farm. If he finds nothing there that suits him he will proceed to the Payette country in Idaho.

H B Gates came down from Ontario last night where he was in attendance at the Irrigation Convention and left this morning for Elgin where he is interested in the electric light plant. We acknowledge a very pleasant call from the gentleman.

These are busy days in the Cove fruit farms. At the pre-ent time there are about 300 employed in picking and packing the prune crop. Messrs Stackland and Hancock are the largest purchasers having brought 25 car loads, which means about 500 tons for which the growers will receive about $7,500.
