Beautiful Columbia

River Folder

A passenger department of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company has just issued a beautiful and costly panoramic folder entitled "The Columbia River, through the Cascade Mountains, to the Pacific Ocean." From Arlington to Portland and from Portland to the Pacific Ocean, every curve of the river and every point of interest are shown while Mt. Hood, Mt. Adams, and Mt. St. Helens, perpetually covered with snow, stand out in their beauty. On the back of the map is an interesting story in detail of the trip from Huntington to Portland and from Portland to the ocean, not overlooking the beaches and the San Francisco trip by ocean. A copy of this folder may be secured by sending four cents in stamps to pay postage to A. L. Craig, General Passenger Agent of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, Portland, Oregon, by sending the address of some friend in the East, and four cents in postage the folder will be promptly mailed.

Early Risers

THE FAMOUS LITTLE PILLS
For quick relief from Biliousness, Stomach Distress, Torpid Liver, Jaundice, Headaches, and all troubles arising from an inactive or sluggish liver. Dr. Williams' Little Early Risers are unequalled. They act promptly and never gripe. They are so dainty that it is a pleasure to take them. One to two act as a mild laxative; two or four act as a pleasant and effective cathartic. They are purely vegetable and absolutely harmless. They tonic the liver.

BOY KILLS CHUM

Portland, Sept. 23—Lada at play with a rifle led to the usual tragedy at Fulton. Charles Edleman, a lad of 16 years, was shooting in a field with a rifle when Carl Loewig a chum came riding down the road on a bicycle, Loewig held up his hat for Edleman to shoot at. The bullet flew wide of the mark, entering Loewig's head at the base of the brain. He died almost instantly. Edleman was arrested.

A Runaway Match

The Stewart Opera House will have the New York success "A Runaway Match" by Hark E. Swan, as an attraction for next Friday eve Sept 30. The play is conceded to be one of the very cleverest of farce comedy compositions that has ever been presented on the American stage. It is brimful of the most ludicrous situations and laughable scenes while the lines are bright and clever and at the same time there is nothing that would offend the most exacting.

The producing company is composed of clever people, many of whom appeared in the original cast when the play was presented in New York where it was a reigning success for an entire season. Among those figuring in the principal roles are to be mentioned the Messrs. Walford Wilson, Jack Prentiss, Ed Perry, Frank Adipston, B. Hender, T. Douglas, and the Misses Claire Washington, Louise Noyers and Myrtle Gunn. The organization is under the direction of the well known firm of Muller & Bales. Mr. Muller has directed and managed many of the highest class theatrical and operatic and operatic attractions that have been offered the American playgoers during the present decade among which are to be mentioned the Pollard Lilliputian Opera Company, Rivoli Road Company and Nance O'Neill. Mr. Thomas Bates come of the famous theatrical family of the same name.

The World's Fair Route

Those anticipating an Eastern trip, or a visit to the Louisiana Purchase exposition at St. Louis, cannot afford to overlook the advantages offered by the Missouri Pacific Railway, which, on account of its various routes and gated ways, has been appropriately named "The World's Fair Route."
Passengers from the Northwest take the Missouri Pacific trains from Denver or Pueblo with the choice of either going direct through the Kansas City, via Wichita, Fort Scott and Pleasant Hill.
Two trains daily from Denver and Pueblo to St. Louis without change, carrying all classes of modern equipment, including electric lighted observation parlor cafe dining cars. Ten daily trains between Kansas City and St. Louis.
Write, or call on W. O. McBride, General Agent, 124 Third St., Portland, for detailed information and illustrated literature.

SORE LUNGS

When your lungs are sore and inflamed from coughing, it is the time when the germs of PNEUMONIA, PLEURISY and CONSUMPTION find lodgment and multiply.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

stops the cough, heals and strengthens the lungs. It contains no harsh expectorants that strain and irritate the lungs, or opiates that cause constipation, a condition that retards recovery from a cold. FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR is a safe and never failing remedy for all throat and lung troubles.

The Doctors Said He Had Consumption—A Marvelous Cure.
L. M. Ruggles, Reasoner, Iowa, writes: "The doctors said I had consumption and I got no better until I used FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. It helped me right from the start and stopped the spitting of blood and the pain in my lungs and today I am sound and well."
