Beautiful Columbia River Folder

A passenger department of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company has just issued a beautiful and costly panoramic folder entitled "The Columbia River, through the Cascade Mountains, to the Pacific Ocean." From Arlington to Portland and from Portland to the Pacific Ocean, every curve of the river and every point of interest are shown while Mt. Hood, Mt. Adams, and Mt. St. Helens, perpetually covered with snow, stand out in their beauty. On the back of the map is an interesting story in detail of the trip from Huntington to Portland and from Portland to the ocean, not overlooking the beaches and the San Francisco trip by ocean. A copy of this folder may be secured by sending four cents in stamps to pay postage to A. L. Craig, General Passenger Agent of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, Portland, Oregon, by sending the address of some friend in the East, and four cents in postage the folder will be promptly mailed.

THE FAMOUS LITTLE EARLY RISE

They act promptly and never give them any chance to get a grip on you. They are so dainty that it is a pleasure to take them. One or two make a good laxative, two or four act as a pleasant and effective cathartic. They are purely vegetable and absolutely harmless. They tonic the liver.

VOTE DOWN AMENDMENTS

San Francisco, Sept. 24.—The sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows this morning voted down the proposed constitutional amendments providing for the admission of persons of 18 to the order, changing of titles of officers of the grand lodge, providing for a representative in the sovereign grand lodge for the Rebekahs, for changing the term of the representative from two to one year, and the admission of Indians and mixed blood to the order.

A Runaway Match

The Stewart Opera House will have the New York success "A Runaway Match" by Mark F. Swan, as an attraction for next Friday eve Sept. 30. The play is conceded to be one of the very cleverest of farce comedy compositions that has ever been presented on the American stage. It is brimful of the most ludicrous situations and laughable scenes while the lines are bright and clever and at the same time there is nothing that would offend the most exacting.

The producing company is composed of clever people, many of whom appeared in the original cast when the play was presented in New York where it was a reigning success for an entire season. Among those figuring in the principal roles are to be mentioned the Messrs. Wilfred Wilson, Jack Erentis, Ed Perry, Frank Adipeton, B. Hender, T. Douglas, and the Misses Claire Washington, Louise Neyors and Myrie Bonn. The organization is under the direction of the well known firm of Muller & Bates. Mr. Jos Muller has directed and managed many of the highest class theatrical and operatical and operatic attractions that have been offered the American playgoers during the present decade among which are to be mentioned the Pollard Lilliputian Opera Company, Elvini Road Company and Nance O'Neil. Mr. Thomas Bates comes of the famous theatrical family of the same name.

The World's Fair Route

Those anticipating an Eastern trip, or a visit to the Louisiana Purchase exposition at St. Louis, cannot afford to overlook the advantages offered by the Missouri Pacific Railway, which, on account of its various routes and gated ways, has been appropriately named "The World's Fair Route." Passengers from the Northwest take the Missouri Pacific trains from Denver or Pueblo, via the agency of either going direct through the Kansas City, via Wichita, Fort Scott and Pleasant Hill. Two trains daily from Denver and Pueblo to St. Louis, without change, carrying all classes of modern equipment, including electric lighted observation parlor cafe dining cars. Ten daily trains between Kansas City and St. Louis. Write, or call on W. O. McBride, General Agent, 121 Third St, Portland for detailed information and illustrated literature.

The DENVER & RIO GRANDE RAILROAD

A Golden Opportunity—See nature in all her glorious beauty, and then the acme of man's handiwork. The first is found along the line of the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad and the latter at the St. Louis World's Fair. Your trip will be one of pleasure—make the most of it. For information and illustrated literature write W. O. McBRIDE, Gen. Agt. Portland, Oregon.

SORE LUNGS

When your lungs are sore and inflamed from coughing, is the time when the germs of PNEUMONIA, PLEURISY and CONSUMPTION find lodgment and multiply.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

stops the cough, heals and strengthens the lungs. It contains no harsh expectorants that strain and irritate the lungs, or opiates that cause constipation, a condition that retards recovery from a cold. FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR is a safe and never failing remedy for all throat and lung troubles.

The Old Man Had Consumption—A Marvelous Cure.

Reasoner, Iowa, writes: "The doctors said I had consumption and no better until I used FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. It helped me get from the start and stopped the spitting of blood and the pain in my lungs and today I am sound and well."
