How Can I Cure My INDIGESTION?

THIS IS A QUESTION THAT HAS BEEN ASKED TIME AND AGAIN BY HUNDREDS—yes, thousands and tens of thousands of people. There is but one way to do this; namely, relieve the Stomach of its nervous strain—rest it; and at the same time Assist the Stomach and Digestive Organs in Digesting and Assimilating Sufficient Food to Rebuild the Tissues Supporting the Organs Involved. There is but one remedy that will do this, and that remedy is KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. If you want to know more about Kodol, come in and La Grande visitor Sunday.

Donald and Wilson men of August in the B Henderson, one of Elgin's merchants spent Sunday in the city, returning home this morning.

J. Caviness headed the subscription paper for Exhibit Hall with $20. If other fruit growers out of town and property owners in the city do as well it will not be long before the necessary amount is raised.

The man who was hurt in the wreck at Perry last Friday evening is still in a dangerous condition, but is considered better than several other patients who have hopes of his recovery.

Mr Hartfield of New York is here looking after fruit conditions generally. This has been a very busy section and he is surprised to know that there would be at least 150 cars of commercial apples for export from this county.

Among the fruit received the past week for the exhibit in glass cylinders which Mr Gandy is putting up were some beautiful peaches grown by Mr Day north of this city apples grown on the Plater Bros farm and plums and prunes from Blackland Bros of the Cove. Mr Causey will soon have an exhibit in Battle city also and further east and will at the proper time exhibit these at the Lewis and Clark fair.

A Runaway Match

It required the genius of Mark E Swan to imagine the circumstances which combine to produce the cleverest of American farce comedies known as "A Runaway Match". Among the famous productions which he has given to the stage are "Browns in Town" and "Whose Baby are You" but these are far excelled in both humor and plot by his latest conceit to be presented at Stewart's Opera House Friday eve Sept 30th. It will be produced by the original cast of players who are everywhere praised by the press critics for their exceptionally clever work, while the play itself is commended as being equal to the late Charles H Hoyt's famous productions. The plot is one succession of humorous situations which are so natural and at the same time occur so unexpectedly and opportunely as to keep an audience in a constant state of humorous hilarity. The play further more is built upon a legitimate plot and is devoid of burlesque. Catchy special ties are introduced by the various members of the cast. Huller & Bates the well known theatrical firm have the direction of the present tour of the "A Runaway Match."

Concerning People Who Come and go and Other Items of Local Interest.

George Mages, of the G.M. & S. Co. of Elgin, is in the city today.

Remember the dance by Company D at the Armory hall tonight.

Sherwood Williams returned from the west last night where he was called to the death bed of his father O W Williams.

The many friends of Mrs. Maud Grandall will be pleased to learn that she is slowly recovering from her recent illness.

Joe McCully, who was called to Joseph on account of the death of his sister, Mrs. E. W. Rumble, will return to La Grande this evening.

Read Blackland Bros new ad they are now offering some very desirable pure bred Cotswold and Shropshire bucks. Those desiring choice animals should see these.

Andrew Blackland will leave this week for Portland to be operated upon for appendicitis. Last June he was confined to his bed for several weeks. Since which time he has steadily improved and will now have the trouble removed while he is in good health.

E B McDaniel came down from Baker City this morning on business requiring attention at the county seat and left in forenoon for the Cove. Mr McDaniel was surprised at the court house now under construction. He said he knew we were building but supposed it was rather of a make a job to keep some remembrance with the before election promises.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Wade Laughlin arrived in this city this morning from Corvallis. Mr. and Mrs. Laughlin were married yesterday in Portland. They will make La Grande their home for the present and occupy the cottage formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mosby. They will meet a number of friends this evening at an at home which Mr. Laughlin's mother gives in their honor.
