Beautiful Columbia River Folder

A passenger department of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company has just issued a beautiful and costly panoramic folder entitled "The Columbia River, through the Cascade Mountains, to the Pacific Ocean." From Arlington to Portland and from Portland to the Pacific Ocean, every curve of the river and every point of interest are shown while Mt. Hood, Mt. Adams, and Mt. St. Helens, perpetually covered with snow, stand out in these beauties. On the back of the map is an interesting story in detail of the trip from Huntington to Portland and from Portland to the ocean, not overlooking the beaches and the San Francisco trip by ocean. A copy of this folder may be secured by sending four cents in stamps to pay postage to A. L. Craig, General Passenger Agent of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company, Portland, Oregon. By sending the address of some friend in the East, and four cents in postage the folder will be promptly mailed.

Council Meeting.

Mayor J. D. Slater called the meeting to order last evening with councilmen Bohemkamp, Fowler, Richardson and Reavis present. There was considerable business to consider and investigate, it being after midnight before adjournment.

Mayor Slater returned the ordinance placing a license on vendors of meat in the city with his disapproval and when placed on final passage his veto was unanimously sustained. His objections were that the ordinance were that it was so worded as to be ineffective if passed.

An ordinance was introduced fixing the salary and prescribing the duties of the city attorney, passed to the second reading and referred to committee.

The Morgan Lake Co. appeared before the council and stated that they were prepared to furnish the city water at a price less than it now costs the city to pump it. The water committee was instructed to investigate the proposition and confer with the company regarding rates, etc.

Liquor licenses were granted Julius Fisher, A. L. Morris and C. C. Rockwell for six months each.

The marshal's report showed only one arrest made in September and that 22 animals were placed in the pound.

Varied Experience.

Ray Williams, a youth of 14 years, came to the city yesterday after traveling over the state with a fake optical. The boy says his home is in Boise and that he started on the road with the optician a few weeks ago on the promise of receiving $20 a month and expenses to assist the optician in his work. Upon reaching La Grande the optician suddenly disappeared and the Williams boy started out in pursuit of his employer. He went as far as Roseburg, where he expected to find the optician, but failed in his hunt and started to return home. He had no money left, and upon finally reaching this city he told the police his troubles, who took him in charge yesterday. The Williams boy will be sent to his home at Boise.—Pendleton Tribune.
