BROKERS OFFICE OPENS WITH PRAYER

Religious Services Conducted Each Morning in a Chicago Broker's Office.

Chicago Oct 7—Morning prayer in a broker's office in La Salle street is a novelty that has been introduced into the life that centers about the tumultuous "pit" by S A Kean, of S A Kean & Co., 132 La Salle street. Mr Kean formerly held services in his office once a week, but six times a week has now become the rule.

Every morning the clerks employed by Mr Kean gather about their employer and religious mentor at 8 o'clock.

A verse from the Bible is read, and then the hymn books are opened and the sound of good old Methodist camp meeting tunes roll out and fall upon the ears of the godless in adjoining offices, for Mr Kean does not believe in keeping his religion all to himself. Despite his efforts, he admits that some years ago a clerk embezzled a large sum of money from the company. This did not discourage Mr Kean, however.

WOULD CONVERT REPORTER

"Young man, are you a Christian yourself?" he demanded, when visited at his home in Evanston, yesterday.

"If you are not you would better give your heart to Christ."
"I have been conducting religious services with my clerks for the last fifteen years. Once I did it every week. Now I do so every day. A little religion to start off the day's work ought to be good six days a week. In John Wesley's time it was customary for business men to men open the day with prayer."

"Are your employees asked to subscribe to any articles of religion, or must they be church members?" Mr. Kean was asked.

EMPLOYEES LIKE SERVICES

"No," was the reply. "I am, of course, careful to see that I employ upright, manly men. They enjoy the services. A new man may be surprised at first, but he soon likes that way of doing business."

Mr Kean is an active and genial elderly man. While he rejoices at the spread of religion, he evinces a distaste for personal notoriety.

"You might as well give your whole heart to Christ right now as well as at any time," he said last night as he reluctantly parted with his visitor. "I shall pray for you."

Mr Kean is a member of Immanuel M E Church, on the West Side.

Multnomah Co. Fairs

Evening Star Grange holds its fair October 20, 21 and 22, at its hall and grounds on the Section Line road. There will be extensive exhibits, including a number by Portland merchants. Evening entertainments will be given in the hall. The grounds may be reached from this city by the reservoir branch of the Hawthorne avenue line. The Milwaukie Grange fair will be held November 8 and 9, and will include a baby show, home and art departments and an evening entertainment.

TOOK CARBOLIC ACID ROUTE

Vancouver Wash. Oct. 7—George McCavatt, a well known young man of this city committed suicide tonight y taking carbolic acid. While apparently enjoying himself with a company of friends in a saloon he stepped aside and deliberately drank an ounce of the poison, turning to his friends he laughingly shook hands all round and then fell writhing on the floor and died in fifteen minutes. No motive for the deed is known.

Peculiar Case.

Observer Special

Boise Oct. 7.—Charles Daly, a solicitor for the gas company was murdered last night in bed, he was shot three times and struck in the head with a hatchet. Fred Bond, a roomer in the Daly house, informed an officer that Mrs Bond shot her husband. Bond and Mrs Daly were arrested, the latter swearing to the coroner's jury that she had shot her husband in self defense. She later swore Bond did the killing, which was arranged between them. Bond declares his innocence.

Take Care of Your Trophies

I will pay from $2 to $10 for male deer heads handled according to directions. The dotted lines on cut of neck and head show where to rip the skin. To bleed your game cut the jugular as low down as possible never cut the throat. Commence to skin by making a cut from the base of the horn to back of the head thence down the back of the neck to top of shoulders thence around the side to point of brisket, work the skin carefully away from the base of the horns. When the ear is reached cut off those to skull. Carefully remove the flesh when the eye is reached run the finger in from the side and raise up the eyelid to avoid cutting it when the tearpit is reached which is near the corner of the eye, work the skin out of the cavity with the point of the knife when the corner of the mouth is reached cut across and expose the teeth. Leave all the black lining on the lip also all the cartilage on the nose. Salt heavily and roll up for 24 hours then dry in the shade. Unless salted well and dried in the shade your work is all lost. Use nothing but salt. Cut as much of the flesh off the head as possible and work the brain out the hole at back of head. Save the under jaw bones when drying the skin keep it from wrinkling. I will also mount your trophies at reasonable prices
