SOME NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST

Gleaned by Judicious Use of Pencil, Scissors and Pastepot

The high wind of Monday rolled in the ocean breakers with such unusual force that 2,000 feet of the Jetties at the mouth of the Columbia river were carried away. At the time of the break six men were standing at the outer end of the jetties and found themselves with a two thousand gap of raging water between them and safety. It took several hours to rescue them.

J. P. McMinn, one of the extensive fruit growers and packers of Umatilla county is preparing to make several large shipments of dried prunes to New York and London. Last year Mr. McMinn shipped several carloads of the product to those points and this year the demand is such that he will be unable to fill scarcely more than half the orders.—Pendleton Tribune.

Mayor George H. Williams vetoed the pool room ordinance at Portland the other day causing much excitement in Portland. The mayor thinks Portland does not need the revenue from a license of or gambling.

Ward Manker the 10-year-old lad who ran away from home Thursday because his mother whipped him, was returned to Pendleton yesterday. He was located in Spokane. The boy is small for his age and says he "best" his way to Spokane on a baggage-car
