RAILROAD ACCIDENTS LAST FISCAL YEAR

Show a Large Increase in the United States—
55,000 Were Injured and 3787 Were Killed.

A report issued by the interstate commerce commission shows that the total number of casualties to persons on railroads during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1904, was 55,139, comprising 3787 killed and 51,344 injured. This shows a large increase. The total number of collisions and derailments was 11,271, involving $9,383,077 damage to cars, engines and roadways. This is an increase of 648 collisions and derailments.

The casualties were an increase of 233 killed and of 5366 injured over the preceding year. Four hundred and twenty of those killed were passengers and 3377 railroad employees, and of those injured 8077 were passengers and 43,268 railroad employees. Included in these are the statistics for the last three months of the year, which show a total of 677 killed and 11,418 injured, a decrease from the preceding quarter. These figures do not include casualties at highway crossings. The report says: "As the accident bulletins are issued to furnish the public with facts this exhibit of the dangers of railroad travel is an exhibit which the most conservative must agree should be termed alarming, and will not be made the subject of comment in this place, but it will be proper to observe that each bulletin adds to the mass of evidence meaning to enforce the observations and recommendations made in the last report.

Off to the War

The Japanese population of La Grande and vicinity were out en masse last night to do honor to a Japanese who was employed in the best fields of the Amalgamated Sugar Company and who left last night to fight for the cause of his country. A grand banquet was given in his honor by K. Mazinchi, a Japanese contractor, and the La Grande Concert band was out, all parading down to the depot where he took the 9:05 east bound train. There were fireworks in profusion. The young soldier has won high honor in former battles.

Tonight Tonight

Gallagher & Harrett's Company appeared at the opera house last night in "Finnegan's Ball," and every inch of space in the large auditorium was filled by fun appreciating people. Mack, Benard, Wilson need no introduction here. Others of the company are strangers, but their performance last night was satisfactory. It's a red hot comedy and was put on by a lively company including a dozen pretty girls.—Baker Democrat.
