

Another Week of Unmatchable Bargain Offerings

We dislike, and do not often use, the most misused word known to the English Language—BARGAINS—But know of no other word that adequately expresses the really out-of-the-ordinary values which our exceptional buying facilities enables us to offer you in the season's best goods of all descriptions. There is hardly a train but brings us new goods of all kinds picked up by our Eastern buyers whose business is to be on the lookout for New Creations that are being put on the market every day and cannot be had out here so far away from the real fashion center without continual vigilance by some one who is in continual touch with the markets of the world.

It Costs Less Money to Buy the Newest Here.

You Don't Pay For The Fellow Who Forgets To Pay If You Trade Here.

Cheaper to Prevent Colds than to Pay the Doctor

Nine-tenths of the colds come from damp feet. Don't keep on wearing thin soles until you catch cold and have the doctor and druggist to pay—You'll have to buy the shoes anyway. Buy new and lay the thin soled ones away until spring.

Rest Room

Do you know what would be a good thing for the merchants of this city to do? said a prominent business man to a Herald representative today. "Establish a rest home for out of town visitors a place for instance where ladies could go while waiting for their husbands or where they meet and converse after their shopping was concluded.

My idea would be for each merchant to contribute a certain sum per month and with a fund so raised construct a small building and put a lady in charge to look after the comfort of visitors "

The way it is now when people come in from the country they have to stand around in the stores or sit in their wagons and the long wait soon becomes tiresome whereas if a rest home were provided they could make it their headquarters and I believe it would serve to bring in more people than what now come here."

"I understand that the city of Eugene has a place of that kind, and if that be the case we should be able to maintain a similar institution." —Baker City Herald.

Pugs Carry Guns

"It is a strange thing that some of the most skillful boxers are not satisfied with nature's weapons," writes Bob Kilgus in the New York Evening World.

"Joe Walcott, who can defend himself against any man living with his bare fists has been in the habit of carrying a revolver. As a result he accidentally shot a friend and blew a hole through his own right hand that may make it impossible for him to continue in the ring. "Kid McCoy need fear no man on earth yet he carries a gun. It is a little French weapon that can be slipped in a vest pocket. fires ten charges and will drive a steel bullet through six inches of oak.

"Jim Jeffries, who could whip a grizzly with his hands, sometimes arms himself with a Lager ten-shot pistol. He can handle his weapon as well as any frontiersman. If any footpad should ever have the nerve to hold Jeffries up he would be in luck if all he got was a knockout punch.

"Bob Fitzsimmons is a bare fist match for anything on two legs, but I know it to be a fact that he never goes to bed at night without first slipping a big Colt's 45 under his pillow, and leaving a loaded revolver within easy reach on a dresser."
