

HAIR BRUSHES

In buying hair brushes, and all other brushes, we look out for points that might escape the notice of customers but which have everything to do with the life and service of the brush.

The construction, material, manner in which bristles are fastened, etc, are all important. The brushes you get here are such as you would seek were you a brush expert.

GOMBS

We are as particular in buying combs as we are in selecting brushes. In either line we are able to give you the best possible value for your money.

About a week ago we chronicled the fact that Mills Andross owned a dog which had swallowed a twenty dollar gold piece by mistake, and that the dog was kept under constant guard. Mr. Andross called up the Observer this afternoon and asked us to state that the dog had played fair and that he was again in possession of the double eagle. It was not quite as large as it was a week ago but the bank analyses show that Mr. Andross was short changed to the amount of fifty cents. He considers his dumb friend all right. He says that he knows of but few men who could carry twenty dollars around without a purse through an election and only come out fifty cents short. The dog will be entitled to a certificate for honesty.
