A Store With A Record

We have been doing business in this town for 5 years. In that time the town has nearly doubled in population. During the same time our business has increased FIVE FOLD. In other words our business has made a great deal more rapid increase than the town has. There are dozens of reasons for this all of which you will perceive if you begin buying drug store goods of us. In the first place we had a thorough training for pharmacy. In the second place we had exceptional opportunities for learning the practical side of pharmacy in a successful drug store of the highest standing. In the third place we have kept our eyes open and attended to business until we know the demands of the people of this town.

THREE DEFEATED CHIEFS

The three defeated chiefs, Parker, Bryan, Watson are out in a manifesto giving their several plans for organizing the opposition to the Republican party and its policies.

Mr. Parker's plan is for a more thorough organization of the Democratic party as a party of opposition to protective tariff in every election district. "To accomplish much in this direction," Mr. Parker in his manifesto of the ninth of November says: "We must forget the difficulties of the past. If any man suspects his neighbor of treachery let him not hint of his suspicion. If he knows he has deserted us let him not tell it."

How well Mr. Parker will succeed in muzzling the Democracy remains to be seen. This is not the first time the leaders of the Democratic party have attempted to gag the people and deny to them the right of free speech but in the past it did not work well. See Democratic platform of 1856 and 1860.

Mr. Bryan in his manifesto of the day after the election gives his plan of re-organization as follows: "The party must continue to protest against a large army, against a large navy and stand for the independence of the Filipino, for imperialism adds the menace of materialism to the corrupting influence of commercialism."

This is mere negation saying what the nation shall not do and makes no proposition to do anything. What Bryan means by "Corrupting inference of commercialism" is not clear, but coupled with his advice, "to protest against a large navy the inference is fair that he does not like the idea of this nation carrying on a big trade with the nations of the world.

Mr. Thomas E. Watson in his manifesto dated Nov. 13 thinks all efforts to head off Republicanism by the use of the Democratic party should be abandoned and a new party organized out of all the elements opposed to the Republican party. He says: "My plans for the future embrace a complete organization of the people along the lines of Jeffersonian Democracy under the establishment of a reform and systematic propaganda of Jeffersonian principles." Standing amid the events of 1904 surrounded by the conditions of this year the question is pertinent. What does Mr. Watson mean by Jeffersonian Democracy? The ablest minds of this nation have been debating for more than a century in a fruitless endeavor to determine what Jeffersonian principles are and Mr. Watson will do what Alexander Hamilton, Webster, Calhoun, Clay, Benton, Case, Chase, Sumner, Buchanan, Breckenridge failed to do if he can give a clear definition of what Jeffersonian Democracy means and outline an affirmative policy based thereon suitable to the wants and conditions of 82,000,000 people now in the United States.

La Grande is fast becoming known throughout Eastern Oregon as a school town. This is splendid compliment to this city and it is one which the city is justly entitled to. It is a fact that the public schools are second to none in the state. It is also a fact that the Sacred Heart Academy is thoroughly the best of the time and is constantly increasing in attendance and each year sees new additions to the course of study and efficiency of the teachers.

There are many things which La Grande can justly point to with pride. Citizens of this city will do well to look around and take notice of the many things in which we excel. It is not necessary to look abroad for that which is best. La Grande is all right. We have a right to hold our heads up as high as anybody.

WHY HE CLIPPED

I saw him take the paper and turn to the household page. Then scan the columns up and down. As one who all would gauge. "Aha!" he muttered to himself, "Here's 'How to Make Rice Fritters' and 'How to Utilize Cold Beef,' and 'Homemade Stomach Bitters.'" Then from his pocket forth he took. A pair of scissors small, And severed from the printed page The helpful hints and all. He clipped "The way to Scramble Eggs," And "How to Make Peach Butter," As well as half a dozen more. "That's all!"—again his mutter. "Do you," I asked, "preserve those notes So that your wife may eye them?" "Not much," he growled, "I cut them out So she won't try to get them." Chicago Inter-Ocean

ASK MONEY ASSISTANCE

St Petersburg Nov. 10—M. Perloff, the millionaire merchant of Moscow, has received a pathetic letter from Mme. Stoessel, wife of General Stoessel dated Port Arthur October 24, appealing to the rich Moscovites for money to assist the helpless, wounded defenders of the fortress, some of whom have lost both arms and legs and others either an arm or a leg, some of them being blind and others suffering from wounds in the spine, and will be crippled for life. There are, she adds many unfortunates.

How dear to my heart is the old-fashioned washboard That mother used to wash on when I was a boy, With its zinc-covered ridges the suds used to play in And soap bubbles gambled to my childish joy Ofttimes have I watched her when wearing her knuckles. As over the ridges our duds she would rub, I never will forget how she soaped and she slobbered The old-fashioned wash board that stood in the tub.

CHORUS

The old-fashioned washboard; The zinc-covered washboard; The back-breaking washboard that stood in the tub Some folks always kick about up-to-date laundries, And say they wear out their clothes every day; But give them to me, so I will have a hot dinner At home, with the smell of the soap suds away I know that the washing machine is much easier On all of our clothes than to take them and rub Till the buttons and buttons are lost and worn out By the old-fashioned washboard that stood in the tub. We are not the old-fashioned kind.
