Booker Washington Gives Good Advice

Would Have the Negro Keep His Place and Not be Imprudent

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 18.—In an address to the colored citizens delivered here tonight, Booker T. Washington said:

"Not a few have predicted that on account of the recent election many members of our race would lose their heads and unduly become pompous and self-assertive and generally offensive. With all the earnestness that I command I want to urge our people in every part of the country to disappoint those who made such predictions by leading a life of increased usefulness, sobriety and simplicity remembering as I have often exhorted before that in the long run it is to certain fundamental ideas of growth in prosperity, intelligence and high character together with the cultivation of friendly relations with our neighbors of all races that we must look for our ultimate success."

"The masses of our people are to dwell for all time here in the south, and here it is our destiny must be worked out, and we can only succeed when we have the confidence and cooperation of those about us."

E C CARBINE GOES EAST WITH APPLES

If Prices Prove Satisfactory He Will Sell The Fruitdale Pack of Fifty Cars

E C Carbine left last evening for New York city and will stop over at intermediate points looking up a market for apples. Two cars have preceded him and two more are packed ready for shipment when he wires for them. Mr Carbine states that he has ten cars of his own apples and if upon his arrival in the eastern markets the prices prove satisfactory he will handle nearly all of the product of Fruitdale, which he estimates at fifty cars this season. This trip of Mr Carbine is in the nature of an experiment which will be closely watched by the growers. There has been very few buyers in this section this season and while our rail is superior the growers thought it would prove profitable to send Mr. Carbine east with samples.

JUSTICE COURT BUSY

The case of Joe Palmer vs E L Eckley, H J Eckley and H W Willets co-partners doing business as the Chronicle Publishing Co., was tried before Justice Hough this forenoon.

The cause of action was to secure balance due on rent amounting to $115. On the 28th of October the office was attached and has been closed ever since. Judgment today was given to the plaintiff by default with reference to E Lane H J Eckley but was dismissed as to H W Willets who denied that he was a co-partner.

This afternoon the case of the state vs. L Prillman is set for 2 o'clock and is now on trial the charge is for an attempt of assault upon the person of Bert Nelson who is the complaining witness.

Just as Justice Hough was about to leave for the chicken pie dinner a party came in with all the necessary evidence that he had been in a mix-up and sworn out a complaint charging John D. ... until the combatant is placed under arrest and tried it is difficult to say what the facts may be, but it leaked out that the trouble grew out of a poker game in the Shamrock Saloon.

In the case of Dan Sullivan who was tried yesterday for the larceny of a pair of blankets. Justice Hough gave him permission to return to his logging camp after paying a fine of $25 which he is working out in this county jail at the rate of $2 per day.

Os-te-op-a-ty
Osteopathy is not a trial of endurance—it is a treatment for bodily weakness; it is not a pastime for hardy athletes—it is a medicine for invalids; it is not rough or depressing—it is soothing and restorative. It is a scientific method to overcome disease adapted to the requirements of each individual from infancy to infirm age and except in rare cases it is not a painful treatment but a pain reliever.

Do not become prejudiced against

Os-te-op-a-ty by what may be said about it ignorantly or through jealousy. Ask an accredited practitioner about it. Read its theory and form your own judgment. Osteopathy urges your personal investigation.
