Washington Nov. 21—Rumor is doing its high official circles that Miss Alice Roosevelt is to pass the season in London and that she will be presented at the court of St James. It is said that she will be a guest of the White-tail Reids, who will take a home in London the coming spring.

SUCCESSFUL MT GLENN FAIR

Other interesting News Items From That Beautiful Section of the County

Thursday and Friday last a very beautiful fair was held in the Mt Glenn hall by the young people of that place. The displays would have done honor to a large city. Prizes were awarded to over thirty exhibitors.

Quinty needle-works, drawing and painting occupied one booth; the mill-dress' work, consisting of carpentry, drawing, sewing, etc was an interesting corner. The vegetable and fruit department won praise for its neat arrangement and fine collection of garden and orchard products.

The curio booth had rare and quaint articles from many lands, including shells, coral, skins from immemorial eras, a mounted lynx, palm-leaf, ancient books, old beads, children's shoes from Europe, etc.

The poultry exhibit was creditable. It consisted of pigeons, ducks, chickens, geese and turkeys.

During the fair a fine musical and comic program was carried out.

Miss Nellie Tiffany was crowned queen by two pretty little maids. There were several aspirants for this honor and over three thousand votes were cast before the contest closed. A king and queen in royal robes presided over the coronation ceremony.

District school has been held in the new school house for one week. Lyman M. Rids, who has taught for two years in the valley, is principal.

Leon Perry and Charles Star will culd just this winter.

Mr B A Kilpatrick expects to ship several cars of apples east in a short time.

$1,687,500

The Bulletin just issued by the United States Government, after months of careful research, shows that in the Western States, the average family purchases annually goods to the amount of $750

On this basis the 2250 families visited with each issue of the Daily and Weekly OBSERVER annually purchase merchandise to the amount of $1,687,500

The natural logical conclusion cannot be otherwise than that no wide-awake business man who will take the few moments necessary to convince himself of the accuracy of the above statement, can afford to miss the opportunity of placing his announcements (25,500 each month) before this army of purchasers.

An ad under such conditions, properly taken care of will most certainly bring enormous returns on the investment.

A POLICEMAN'S TESTIMONY
J. N. Patterson, night policeman of Nashua, Ia., writes—"Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and it was at least a half dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR and two thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung remedy in the world."
