Lyle Tuesday Musicales

The Lyle Tuesday Musicales met yesterday afternoon at the Club parlors. The program was under the direction of Miss Lillian McCall and was one of the most delightful presented for the approval of the Club this winter. One of the many unique features of the program was the souvenir which was presented to each member. This delightful little souvenir was in the form and color of a golden pumpkin. Upon the first leaf was printed a menu containing some eight or ten different dishes. The spelling took the form of a puzzle and the lady who could guess the greatest number correctly was awarded a dainty pumpkin pie. The prize was awarded to Mrs. Clara T. Lyle, after whom the Club is named. The following is the program as rendered under the direction of Miss McCall.

Vocal Solo....."Silvery Bells"
Miss Jones
Piano Solo....."Bubbling Spring"
Kathleen Thomas.
Vocal Solo....."Sing, smile, slumber"
Mrs. H. Laughlin.
Guitar Solo....."Home Memories"
Mrs. Richardson.

Black Patti Troubadours

Mirth, melody and music is the keynote of the performance to be given by the famous Black Patti Troubadours at Stewards Opera House Tuesday Nov. 29.

These sweet singers and ebony-colored funmakers of Dixie land have been recognized for years as a high-class standard attraction and one that has scored a phenomenal success with theatre-goers in all sections of the country. Among the forty in its ranks are to be found the most talented Afro-American singers, dancers and comedians in the world. Sissieretta Jones, the Black Patti, the vocal star of the organization, in addition to being the most gifted singer of her race, enjoys the distinction of having sung before the largest audiences that ever assembled in Madison Square Garden, New York City, and the only colored female singer honored by royal command to sing before the former Prince of Wales, now King Edward of England. In this you try the Black Patti and the Troubadours through their refined and enjoyable stage performance have added largely to the musical culture of the people. The happy revival of the sweet melodies of the South—reminiscent of the Ante Bellum days—the plantation cotton fields and the levee has been a musical revelation to millions.

1st. THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

In the early days of the Colonies it was customary to appoint days of fast and thanksgiving whenever public events seemed to demand the notice of the church. Thus in June, 1632, the General Court of the Colony of Massachusetts Bay appointed a day of Thanksgiving in consideration of "the great mercy of God vouchsafed the churches of God in Germany and the Palatinate"
—But it is not until October of the next year that we find any record of the Harvest Holiday which in these times is the only Thanksgiving Day known.

In regard to the many and extraordinary mercies which the Lord hath been pleased to vouchsafe of late to this plantation was a plentiful harvest of special vae and quality, etc, it is ordered, that Wednesday the 16th day of this present month, shall be kept as a day of publique thanksgiving through the usual plantations. And whereas it is found by common experience that the keeping of lectures at the ordinary hours now observed in the dyvers wayes prudicial to the bringing othr changes and troubles to the place where the lecture is kept, it is therefore ordered that hereafter noe lecture shall begin before one o'clock in the afternoon.

Note. This order was passed at A Court, holden at Boston, October 11th 1638.

$1,687,500

The Bulletin just issued by the United States Government, after months of careful research, shows that in the Western States, the average family purchases annually goods to the amount of $750

On this basis the 2250 families visited with each issue of the Daily and Weekly OBSERVER annually purchase merchandise to the amount of

$1,687,500

The natural logical conclusion cannot be otherwise than that no wide-awake business man who will take the few moments necessary to convince himself of the accuracy of the above statement, can afford to miss the opportunity of placing his announcements (25,500 each month) before this army of purchasers.

An ad under such conditions, properly taken care of will most certainly bring enormous returns on the investment.
