One real estate firm in this city has built nearly thirty dwellings in this city during the past year. This firm by its liberal method of doing business enables many to own their own homes who otherwise would not be able to become free holders even in this land of easy things. It is such firms as this that has made La Grande forge so far ahead of other towns in eastern Oregon. It would be only fair to state the name of this progressive firm, though most of our citizens are already familiar with the name of the La Grande Investment Co.
