It is rumored that a corner may be made on onions by some of the principal wholesale dealers in Portland. If the dealers do succeed in combining the price of onions, which is now firm, will have a tendency to boost the markets.

There are no changes in the local markets today in regard to prices in potatoes, but several cars of fancy Oregon Burbanks have been shipped to Arizona.

The receipts in poultry are not so large as the demand, and prices are practically 1/2 cent higher on the market.

The Method of Cure

It believes that the right way to combat disease is to examine the body, locate the spot at which the interference is taking place, and remove it by the skilful manipulation with the hands that is peculiar to the system. It finds these interferences most often although not by any means always, at some point along the great trunk line of the nervous system in the spinal column, where the contraction of tissue or the violation of a fraction of an inch in the position of one of the bony parts of the spine will cause trouble.
