LOCAL ITEMS

WHAT SOME PEOPLE IN AND OUT OF TOWN ARE DOING.

Mr. Mills Andross returned this forenoon from a business visit to Portland.

The dance given at the Commercial Club last night by the members of the Club was a success.

Miss Francis Blum who is confined to the house with typhoid fever is somewhat improved today.

Rev. Mead M. Bledsoe, pastor of the Emmanuel Church at Portland passed through the city enroute to Nampa Idaho.

Remember the Ladies of Central Church are to serve dinner and supper Wednesday Dec 21 in laying your plans count this date.

Mr. John Fincher and wife, who have been visiting the family of Mr. G. W. Thomas since last Thursday, left this morning for their home.

Misses Mollie Proebstel and Syra Kuhn will entertain the members of the 401 Club and a few gentlemen at the home of the latter Monday evening.

The snow of last night while it covered the valley and gave the landscape a decidedly wintered appearance, was so light that sleighs were not taken from their summer moorings.

Do not fail to read the La Grande Investment Co's ad which appears in this issue of the Observer. This firm is one of the substantial concerns of this county and is doing much to keep La Grande abreast of the times. Read their holiday ad.

The Girl's Basket Ball team of the La Grande High school will give an entertainment at the High School building on next Thursday evening for the purpose of procuring funds for the team. The price of admission will be 15 cents.

Sheriff Brown of Baker City passed through the city last night enroute to Salem with James Hall in custody. James Hall was convicted of horse stealing at the present term of the Circuit Court in Baker Co and was sentenced to six years imprisonment in the penitentiary.

J. M. Closky a man totally blind from the effects of a premature blast will give an exhibition in Armory hall this evening at 8 o'clock sharp. This entertainment is outside of the "eloquutionary" class it is mingled acting, voice manipulation and rare wit. Admission 25 and 15 cents.

Charles Noyes reports a double headed dove among his poultry. The dove lived about a week and then died apparently from brain fever. The one body was not sufficient to supply the demand made upon it and there for gave up the contract. This dove was a sort of a double ender as it was also provided with a double set of feet.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Elliott, and Mr. Elliott's cousin, Miss Behn, arrived in the city yesterday and will remain here a couple of weeks visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Elliott is a La Grande boy and has many friends who will be pleased to welcome him. He has a responsible position with the United Elkhorn Mining Company and is now taking his vacation.

Elks Social

The Elks will give a social this evening for all Elks, their wives and lady friends. A special consignment of clams, crabs and other good things have been ordered for the occasion. Remember the date—tonight.

Makes Nice Gift.

The Ladies of the Presbyterian church who will hold a bazaar in this city on the 16th and 17th of this month have shown themselves extremely enterprising and energetic in preparing for this event. They have not let the grass grow under their feet in the matter of procuring articles for sale, nor have they been backward in approaching those who sit in high places. In fact they even had the temerity to write to President Theodore Roosevelt asking of him some article to place on a table in order to procure money for the ends in view. The president was not parsimonious, but with his usual appreciation of such requests, he immediately replied to the ladies. The president's gift to the bazaar consists of something that is now of great value to those who love their country, and in days to come will be of greater value. It is two beautifully bound volumes, "The Works of Theodore Roosevelt" with his presidential addresses and state papers. The books were accompanied with a kindly letter from Wm. Loeb, Secretary to the president, and in the book there is an autograph inscription from the president in these words: "With the good wishes of Theodore Roosevelt. Oct. 25th., 1901." The ladies in charge of the bazaar will put these two volumes, together with the letter of the secretary, on sale to the highest and best bidder. The bids must all be sealed bids. Now is the chance to show your appreciation of your president, and help the ladies in their laudible and charitable undertaking. Don't bid little, but high.

Elgin Store

E. C. Plass a well known resident of Gordon creek and proprietor of the famous brown stone quarry was a caller at the Recorder office Tuesday. Mr. Plass informed us that Monters-telli Bros., of Pendleton had two men in the quarry getting out two carloads of stone for shipment.—Elgin Recorder.

About Nerve Knowledge

It knows which nerves control each organ and at what points they leave the spinal column, and hence is able to work with an exactness and effectiveness never before attained by any system of treating disease.

It knows, too, of those nerves which control the blood supply to every part of the body; and through attending to it that those nerves have freedom of action is enabled to restore the blood to its normal condition.

Company L will give a dance at the Armory Hall Monday night.
