The Quality Shoe Store has an announcement in this issue calling attention to a special sale of men's and boys shoes which should be read by every man, woman, and child in the city. It will pay you to do so.

The members of the 401 Club and a few friends were entertained by Misses Syra Kuhn and Mollie Proebatal at the home of the former last night. High Five was played and it proved to be one of the most enjoyable parties of the season.

You need not worry over a Xmas gift, go to the Hazzar at Armory Hall where you will find something suitable. See the number of dusting caps, stocking bags, up-to-date water color heads, bed room slippers, comforts, hemstitched pillow slips and various other articles. All on sale at reasonable prices Friday and Saturday of this week.

Rev. J. D. Gillilan returned last evening from a round up of the Wallowa Valley, visiting Joseph, Enterprise, Flora, Wallowa and the newly opened and settled Promise land. A new church organization was effected at Middle Point, just east of Promise, and the people begin next week the erection of a building for a house of worship. There is a little snow in the Wallowa Valley proper, but on the summit, north of town toward the country visited it was found in plenty. The Slatfoot, Promise and Middlepoint people are mainly from West Virginia and are settled on a fine piece of country. Mr. Gillilan will be at home for three or four weeks.

Mrs. J. E. Forrester.

Os-te-op-a-ty

Some men who own machines keep them constantly in perfect repair, which makes the life of the machine long and their usefulness great. So it is with the body. Do not wait until absolutely forced to do something. Repairs are more easily and quickly made while the impairment is still slight. And there is such a thing as being too late.
