GREAT SCRIMMAGE IN BASKET BALL

A Free for all Fight Occurs in a Basket Ball Game.

It is to be trusted, or at least hop- about where the trouble began. ed, that in the excercises, and in the games which the basket ball team of our high school participate in, there depicted in the following article from Nicholasville, Ky.

Nicholasville, Ky., Dec. 16-With four girls under the care of physicians the local arnica stock backed off the boards and court plaster held firm at $2 an inch the bask atball game between the young women of Jesamine college and a picked team of Nicholasville girls last week may be pronounced an unqualified success. In the articles of agreement it was specified that scratching, hair pulling nudging and uppercuts were barred, but some enthusiastic young pheical culture exponent forgot her promise early in the first inning and that's

"Ain't you the sassy one!" cried the first young lady who received the rough end of a jab under her little will be no such games played as is pink car. "I'll get hunky with you before many minutes, so now! 60 OB.

In about three minutes by a stop watch the basketball game had been converted into a battle royal, with London prizering rules governing.

Anxious spectators called on the referee to split them out but she was too busy hunting for her "rat." Mean while the ball had been tossed up into the gallery and the battle royal had suddenly switched into a wrestling bout, with no holds barred.

A hurry cell brought in an ambulance and four doctors, and the audiance breathed a sigh of relief. It is believed several of the girls will be presentable in less than two weeks.

Dies Bite

Walia Walla, Dec. 6 -After suffering for nearly four weeks from a series of chills and paralysis, which were first noticed after she was bitten by an insect which she took for at elder bug, 9 year old Neda Cope, daughter of A T Cope, died last night about eight

It was while at school about a month ago, that the little girl vas bitten twice on the neck and once on the shoulder Soon afterward she was seized with chills and was treated for a time for typhoid fever. From the first she was speechless and helpless eing paralyzed almost completely on the left side. After a while the treatment was changed and it was thought the little patient showed slight improvement for a time, but the chills cu red and continued until death de er offerings last night.

Can't We Beat It?

There is on exhibition at Ambler & Watters' real estate office two beets that, perhaps as large or larger than any ever before reised in this country The largest weighe 47 pounds, and the other one will weigh at least 40 pounds. They were raised in what Account is called white land by Mr Dilley near Shedd Station. There seems to be no limit to the size of anything grown in the Willamette valley .- Corv allis Gazette.
