Baker City deserves to be commended for its blushing modesty in the way it seeks the things of this world. All it wants now are:

A $100,000 appropriation for a government building in Baker City. A division of the federal court distriet of Oregon and the establishment of Baker City as headquarters for a new district.

A ocnsolidation of the La Grande and Burns land offices and a removal of new headquarters of an all embrso ing Eastern Oregon land office district to Baker City.

The establishment of a United States assay office in Oregon-not at Portland, but at Baker City.

One thing we had almost forgotten Baker wants John L. Rand appointed judge of this new district and then rumor has it that C. A. Johns wants to be governor. If there is anything else in sight, please ring the One An appropriation for a government building That is possible, but a long time hence. Two. Another federal court distri t This has long ago been proven absurd by a review of the number of districts in the United States. It will be many days before Oregon will be favored with two districts when the one it now comprises does less than one-tenth of the business of some districts of the Eastern states. This is nonsense, political clap-trap, etc. Three. Consolidation of two land offices. Burns. is in the center of a great unclaimed country and it would be the height of folly to move that land office beyond one corner of the country to be bene-Baker is a natural location.
