Printing

That

Satisfies

There is a difference between printing that "will do" and that which is the kind you really want.

We make a specialty of pleasing, as we have the equipment with which to produce good printing and printers who understand the art of printing.

There is no order too small or too large to receive our careful attention.

We print anything from posters to visiting cards.

NOW IS THE TIME

THE O'CONNOR ADDITION

is now ready for the market and will be sold at reasonable rates. This addition contains some of the most handsome residence sites to be found in La Grande. This splendid addition has been held off the market for several years, the owner believing that the time had not arrived when it would be properly appreciated. Now is the time to buy and insure good returns on the investment. The O'Connor addition is nicely located in regard to schools, churches and the business district.

Never has such a perfect performance of Harriett Beecher Stowe's Masterpiece "Uncle Tom's Cabin" been given in New York as that rendered by Mason and Dixon's Big spectacular company last night. This is the fifth week of their stay, and they are turning people away at every performance. They will continue at this theatre until late in August, when they start on a tour of the Western territory. —New York Sun.

Absolutely Harmless

The fault of giving children medicine containing injurious substances, is sometimes more disastrous than the disease from which they are suffering. Every mother should know that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly safe for children to take. It contains nothing harmful and for coughs, colds and croup is unsurpassed. For Mother's Sake

With an exceptionally large cast, and a capable one, a wealth of special scenery, and a plot of engrossing human interest are among the promises concerning the new story of New England Life, "For Mother's Sake" which will appear at Stewards Opera house Thursday Jan 12.

The first act is laid at Lawrentown on the shores of Lake Megantic among the pines of northern Maine, and is set in admirable taste. The second act is the exterior of Mrs. Pemberton's cottage, and dooryard forming a very homelike picture. The third act is a mining scene among the mountains of Colorado giving excellent opportunities for fine scenic display which the management has taken complete advantage. But the some of stage setting is seen in the fourth act, when the snow storm is seen raging through the latticed window and blow in at the door as the characters enter. It makes you feel so snug and cozy when the door is shut and you see the cheerful fireplace, the lighted Christmas tree and the village tots singing their Christmas carols, and making merry over the return of their play-fellow and favorite Jo Pemberton.

Os-te-op-a-thy

It would be an unqualified boon to health if the use of no poison in the Pharmacopoeia had ever been discovered.

Bent Her Double

"I know no one, for four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs Annie Hunter of Pittsburg Pa, "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders at the Newlin drug store price 50c.

Coughing Spell Caused Death

"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years choked to death early yesterday morning at his home in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St Louis Globe-Democrat Dec 1 1904." Ballard's Horehound syrup would have saved him.—25c, 50c and $1.00.—Newlin Drug Co.
