Printing

That

Satisfies

THE OBSERVER

There is a difference between printing that "will do" and that which is the kind you really want.

We make a specialty of pleasing, as we have the equipment with which to produce good printing and printers who understand the art of printing.

There is no order too small or too large to receive our careful attention.

We print anything from posters to visiting cards.

ADAMS TAKES OATH

Denver, Jan. 10.—Alva Adams, democrat of Pueblo, was inaugurated Governor of Colorado for the fourth time at noon today in the presence of Chief Justice Hibbard administered the oath. The ceremony was very simple. Adams refused the offer of a military escort to the state house and said: "There has been too much militarism in Colorado recently, but I don't propose to begin my administration with a display of arms." Ex-Governor Peabody entered the room beside Adams and both were greeted with wild cheers. Adams pledged the people fair, honest and economical administration, and declared that the law would be enforced for the benefit of all and not for a favored few; declared that all law breakers should be treated alike, and proposed to have peaceful and prosperous administration.

Makes Reparation

Washington, Jan. 10.—Information has reached the state department that, complying with the insistent demands of the United States, the Persian government has made to the widow partial reparation for the murder of the Rev. Benjamin W. Labarre, an American missionary, by a gang of fanatics, and has promised that all the guilty persons involved in the crime will be punished.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

WILL CURE any case of KIDNEY or BLADDER DISEASE that is not beyond the reach of medicine. No medicine can do more.

WAS GIVEN UP TO DIE.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured."

For Mother's Sake

With an exceptionally large cast, and a capable one, a wealth of special scenery, and a plot of engrossing human interest are among the promises concerning the new story of New England Life, "For Mother's Sake" which will appear at Stewards Opera house Thursday Jan 13.

The first act is laid at Lawrentown on the shores of Lake Megantic among the pines of northern Maine, and is set in admirable taste. The second act is the exterior of Mrs. Pemberton's cot-ge, and dooryard forming a very homelike picture. The third act is a mining scene among the mountains of Colorado giving excellent opportunities for fine scenic display which the management has taken complete advantage. But the scene of stage setting is seen in the fourth act, when the snow storm is seen raging through the latticed window and blow in at the door as the characters enter. It makes you feel so snug and cozy when the door is shut and you see the cheerful fire place, the lighted Christmas tree and the village tots singing their Christ mass carols, and making merry over the return of their play-fellow and favorite Jo Pemberton.
