The Fair
THE PLACE TO SAVE MONEY

Attention W. G. T. U.

Dr O'Conner returned last night from a business trip to Baker City.

Attorney C. H. Finn expects to be able to leave tonight for California for his health.

C. J. Black who has charge of the Sugar Co's best lands near Union is in the city today. He states the company will plant 1000 acres this spring.

Col. Judson industrial agent of the O. R. & N. Co. is in the city today looking over the land office plats with the view of locating a colony of home-seekers on government land.

Mr Clyde Seitz is carrying his face around in a sling this afternoon. The reason thereof is traceable to a fast team and a bad cross walk. Mr Seitz was riding in a carriage and the carriage suddenly stopped, but Mr Seitz did not, he kept going. And the sudden contact between his face and the above mentioned cross walk accounts for the patchwork appearance of his face this afternoon and the sewed up condition of his good right hand.

FOR GIRLS DORMITORY

R. E. French, president of the Eastern Oregon Normal school at Weston has gone to Salem where he will remain in the interests of the school and work for the appropriation of $55,000 which comes before the Legislature for the girls dormitory asked for in a bill presented by joint Representative W. G. Cole. The present building used for the dormitory is entirely inadequate for the accommodation for the large number of lady students.

Os-te-op-a-ty

Each person should know that the state of his health is due to conscious or unconscious obedience or disobedience to the laws of Nature. If we know Nature's laws, conscious obedience will preserve health, strength and vigor of mind and body.

Nature's laws relative to the human body require that the framework or body should be normal. Upon this depends normal distribution of nerve force interdependent upon normal blood circulation, all contributing their share to normal functional activity of the different vital organs.

Osteopathy puts the body right—Nature does the rest.
