Music

R. F. Tait the pioneer music teacher of Grande Ronde Valley is still in the ring. During my vacation I made it my business as well as pleasure to attend concerts, operas, and in fact every thing in my line of business and I found that as a teacher, and interpreter of music and still in the front rank. Pupils who do not wish the full conservatory course may take the popular piano course. This places the pupil in position to play the popular music of the day, Choron and Sunday School music.

The Violin popular course places the pupil in position to play all kinds of dance music as well as light overtures. Quite a number of musicians who have been under my instruction are now making good money as teachers and soloists. Pupils who are under my care will be thoroughly instructed in music.

Rev. Thomas Needham

Mr. Needham ranks as one of the best evangelists in the country. He has co-operated with all the leading evangelists in the country including the lamented Moody and Whittle. His work everywhere has been clean and wholesome. He honors the Holy Spirit and preaches the Word. He makes the Bible a new book to the masses.

His expository bible readings are full of juice, point and force. An Ashley paper reports: "For three weeks Rev. Thomas Needham has been conducting services in the Presbyterian church and every evening the building has been crowded with interested and anxious listeners. Mr. Needham's style of preaching is mainly expository and the facility with which he quotes Scripture, giving book and chapter and verse is remarkable. That his preaching is effective is evinced by the fact that over one hundred and fifty persons have professed conversion during this series of meetings."

Dr. Lincoln Moore of Philadelphia says "His preaching while heart reaching is tender and sympathetic. He emphasizes the great truths of the Gospel, and presents Christ as an all sufficient Saviour. He possesses all the requisites of a great preacher—command of language, depth of feeling, knowledge of men, exactness of observation, and a loving heart."

Another writes: "The Bible readings given by Mr. Needham have been a great uplift to us and as a result thereof, there is born within us a new and stronger love for the Word."

Clifton Powers

The Columbia dispatch gives this report of Clifton Powers.

"Clifton Powers, who has been singing so successfully with Dr. Gray, who is conducting Bible expositions each forenoon and afternoon at the First Presbyterian and the First United Presbyterian churches respectively, possesses one of the most emotional and exquisite tenor voices ever heard in this city. Besides being a fine soloist he is also a great choir instructor and leader and since his arrival in this city has been attracting wide attention.

Mr. Powers was educated in Paris under M. Briglia, the well known teacher of Jean de Reske, the famous opera tenor singer.

He began evangelistic singing on January 1, 1904 in New York city and has since been heard by thousands of people in Philadelphia and Pittsburg, where his singing assisted greatly in winning souls to Christ.

Previous to taking up evangelistic singing he was a church, concert and oratorio singer in New York city.

I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment I used three 50c bottles, it is the greatest liniment I ever used, have recommended it to a number of persons all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm."—Newlin Drug Co.
