Bent Her Double
"I knew no one, for four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter of Pittsburg Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to National bank returned to Pendleton Saturday evening after being absent a year to the east. Mr. Wade was taken to the home of his son, Guy Wade, where he will remain during his stay in the city. His physical condition is very weak, having been unable to stand the shock which he suffered a year ago during the first trouble in his financial downfall and the strain resulting from the exploitations of his dealings during the proceedings of the bankruptcy court.—Pendleton Tribune

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism," says W H Howard of Husband, Pennsylvania.
"At times she was unable to move at all, while at times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with. For sale by Newlin Drug Co.
