LOCAL ITEMS

WHAT SOME PEOPLE IN AND OUT OF TOWN ARE DOING.

Nick Belver is in Baker City on a brief business trip.

Every one is cordially invited to attend the House Warming and Ball at the Court House tonight.

G. W. Hyatt and wife of Walla Walla returned to that place this morning after spending a few days in this city.

Mrs. Mollie Shaw, proprietor of the Le Clede Hotel at North Powder who has been dangerously ill is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp will entertain the Tuesday Evening Whist Club at their home tomorrow evening.

There will be a business meeting of the Jollity dancing club held at the Commercial Club Tuesday evening, by order of President J. J. Carr.

The Noble Stock Company closed a three nights engagement at the Opera House Saturday night in "The Moonshiners" which was well attended and gave general satisfaction. The company began a four nights engagement at Pendleton last night.

Come and hear Rev. Thomas Needham and Clifton Powers at the Presbyterian church tonight at 7:30 and tomorrow at 3 p. m. Good music. No collection. Everybody welcome. Come and bring your friends.

E. P. McDaniel of Baker City a former resident of the Cove is in the city today. Mr. McDaniel has just returned from Salem where he went to attend the funeral and settle the estate of his brother Frank McDaniel of Stayton who was found dead in a hotel at that place.

Knights at Walla Walla

A number of the members of the Catholic order Knights of Columbus, recently organized in La Grande, attended the big initiation of 30 new members into the order at Walla Walla yesterday. Several of those attending returned home this morning and report royal treatment from the Walla Walla Knights to their visiting brothers. A grand banquet was served last evening. The following is a list of the local Knights in attendance:

J. H. Pearce, Philip Loy, Jno. Donnelly, Jas. Murphy, F. O'Hare, Thos. Walsh, Sr., Chester Newlin, Thos. Walsh, Jr., Jas. McCoy, Ed. McCoy, John McKenny, Pat Foley, J. D. Casey, Tim Donovan, Dan Heinz, Jno. McLaughlin, J. F. Logue, Thos. Eagan.

Special Meetings

A large audience in the morning and a crowded house in the evening greeted Rev. Thomas Needham evangelist of Philadelphia and Mr. Clifton Powers tenor soloist of New York, yesterday at the Presbyterian church.

Rev. Thomas Needham is a strong and pleasing preacher. His sermons are free from all sensationalism. He preaches the word relying on the Spirit of God to make it effective. He has a happy faculty of using illustrations out of his rich storehouse of experience.

Clifton Powers possesses one of the best tenor voices ever heard in this city. In his rendering of the Holy City yesterday morning he won all hearts. All are cordially invited to come and hear these brethren every evening at 7:30 except Sat. and every afternoon at 3 p. m.

Born

In this city to Mr. and Mrs. L. Christensen Jan. 20 a son.

COURT HOUSE ON THE HILL

From the east side and the west side And all around the town, The people come from far and near, Dressed up in evening gown. To trip the light fantastic, And dance with right good will In the new imposing "Court House" That stands upon the hill.

The Court room will be crowded With many dancers, fair, The music will be playing Soft strains upon the air. The memory of the happy time; Our hearts will often fill, When we tripped the light fantastic In the "Court House" on the hill.

Uno.

Dunham Wright of Medical Springs is among business visitors in the city.

The musical program at the "House Warming" at the court house tonight will be given at 8:30 sharp.

D. B. Hendricks and wife of Elgin passed through La Grande Saturday night enroute to Sumpter to spend a few days.

Married

Mr. B. T. May of La Grande and Alice O. Torney of Spokane were married at the office of John E. Hough, Justice of the Peace, on Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. May is one who needs no introduction to the public. He has a large acquaintance here, having been a trusted employee of the O. & N. for a dozen years or more and is now holding down a desk at the freight office.

Os-te-op-a-ty

Each person should know that the state of his health is due to conscious or unconscious obedience or disobedience to the laws of nature. If we know Nature's laws, conscious obedience will preserve health, strength and vigor of mind and body.

Nature's laws relative to the human body require that the framework or body should be normal. Upon this depends normal distribution of nerve force interdependent upon normal blood circulation, all contributing their share to normal functional activity of the different vital organs.

Osteopathy puts the body right—Nature does the rest.
