and fire the bullets at the breasts of the laborers? It was the Emperor, the Grand Duke, the nobles of their Court and they are murderers. Slay them, to arms, comrades. Seize the arsenal and the arms at the gun-smiths. Lay low the prison walls and liberate the defenders of freedom. Demolish the police stations and all Government state buildings. We must throw down the Emperor and his Government and have our own Government. Long live the revolution."

Special Services at Presbyterian Church

The evangelistic meetings at the Presbyterian church were well attended last night not withstanding the attractions at other places.

The singing by Mr Powers was as usual, soul stirring and winning. His voice is certainly a rare treat to all music loving people.

Rev Needham used for his Scrip-ture Reading Gen. 32:24.

He spoke of the Great Jehovah dealing with Jacob who was then a stranger to God.

He emphasized the awfulness of the condition of those who are like Jacob strangers to God.

The text was Gen. 32:24-25-28 ver.

Rev Needham spoke in substance as follows: "This is a case in which child man is in trouble with parents. Many parents show partiality to children. It should not be so.

Jacob's mother Rebekah was anxious that he should inherit the birth-right and receive the blessings result-ing from same

Esau was the older son and the birthright was his.

But Jacob was sent away by his father, Isaac after having received the birthright. Esau had threatened to slay Jacob. Those parents were partial to Jacob.

God gave Jacob a promise and he had a dream in which the Lord appeared to him and gave this promise Gen 28:12-10.

But Jacob was a coward and would not trust God. He had been scheming and deceiving for twenty years. God made him the same promise twice during this time.

He finally started home again and sent messages to his brother Esau. But yet he was afraid and would not trust God and his promises.

It was at this time he prayed, a heartless but wonderful prayer. He was in trouble.

He wanted to know how he was to meet Esau. Christians who do not trust God are in just the same position as Jacob. God always punishes for doubt in him. Affliction and trouble are many times sent upon unbelievers and doubtful ones. God had watched Jacob all these twenty years and at last had him alone in solitude and loneliness. Christians in sin are as the leper who is placed in solitude because of the terrible disease. They are expelled from their fellowmen.

Solitude with God means and brings blessings to christians. It may cost pain but after being in the chamber of solitude with God in which he searches Christians it leaves them clean and pure.

God's way is always the best way. God was dealing with Jacob and at last brought him to subjection and Jacob received a rich blessing.

God's spirit brings us to places of weakness then he makes us strong and gives us blessings.

We should be in God's hands as clay in the hands of the potter. When we realize our own weakness, it is then God lifts us up and blesses us.

Jacob was twenty years confessing his sin to God. Many christians are not willing to confess their sins though God so much desires they should. He will forgive if we but confess.

David was deeply in sin but he con-fessed his sin and God was willing to forgive. First there must be confes-sion of sins before God will bear and forgive.

Many christians today are living in sin and will not confess. May we not be that kind and may we help others to get right before God.

Jacob was given a new name that of Israel. He was to become a prince of power with God and man. The old Jacob had to die. Death is a hard place to bring christians. One who confesses their sins has two lives. They are born twice and die once. The old nature must be kept under sub-jection. Many Christians like Tho-mas may be found at other places rather than in God's house. Such are doubtful ones and God's blessings are held from them.

Paul had hard fight to keep the old nature under subjection. Rom 6:6 but he was never troubled about his salvation after his acceptance of Christ

When we reach the goal the eye of the great Judge will be upon us. Let us be careful lest we be disapproved by this Judge. By the Grace of God we can keep our old nature under subjection. Light came at last to Jacob as it comes to us all when God is going to bless us. The world watches us as Christians and rebuke us when we sin and we deserve it. God went before Jacob and prepared the way. He does this for all Christians Cleave to the blessed word of God and don't doubt him. His promises never fail.

God forbid that Christians should be brought to plans of solitude and loneliness before they can and will receive God's blessings. But may we all want and receive God's blessing. Let God have his way.

The Commissioners Liberal Offer

Whereas, It is the duty of this Com-mission to collect a full and complete exhibit of the manufactures, arts in-dustries and products of the state for the Lewis and Clark Centennial Ex-position and to encourage a greater interest among the people of the dif-ferent counties, (recognizing that the progressive citizens of each commu-nity will be better equipped for a judicious selection of meritorious exhibits than any agent whom the Commission might send out), and

Whereas, It is the intention of this Commission to make the Oregon exhibit a collective one, set up under the name of the County furnishing the same, and crediting to each individual contributor the exhibit furnished by him, and

Whereas, to further insure that each county be represented by an exhibit of its resources, be it

Resolved, That this Commission hereby declares its intention to pur-chase each county exhibit upon the following conditions:

1. That such exhibit cover each and every resource and product within the county.
2. That each parcel be packed in such manner as prescribed by the Commission, and delivered to the nearest railway depot and addressed to the secretary of this Commission.
3. That the counties having charge of the gathering of such exhibits use every means to obtain contributions from their citizens and to keep the cost of their exhibits at as low a figure as possible.

That this Commission will pay on receipt of the county exhibit, fifty per cent of its actual cash cost to the county, such payment to be made upon being vouchered for by the county court as to such actual cash expendi-ture, but in no instance will this Com-mission pay a greater sum than $500 for any single county exhibit. This Commission will require itemized statements of expenditures showing exact cost of labor and product, with an inventory of each item of exhibit, numbered on vouchers and inventory to correspond, so that each item of cost may be identified. Be it further Resolved, That additional sums of $1000, $500, $300, and $200 are hereby set aside and appropriated to be paid, in addition to the sum heretofore appropriated to the various counties in the state, to the four counties scoring the highest point in the exhibits to be made at the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition to be held in Portland in 1905; no county being permitted to compete for these additional purchase sums excepting those who keep a rep-resentative in charge of their exhibit during the time of the Fair.

That the above sum is added for the purpose of encouraging better county exhibits and the enlistment of the agents of the different counties for the purpose of explaining their exhibits.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy
the Best Made

"In [my] opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker of Porterville, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventative of pneu-monia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. There are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by Newlin Drug Co.

I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decid-ed it was the most wonderful pain re-liever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk.
