THE LOVE OF GREAT PEOPLE

"The love of a great people or their Czar," says Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador at Washington, "is not wiped out by the theories of a few street brawlers. It will be found, when order has been restored, that traditional affection of the Russian people for their Czar still abides." And he adds that when violence has been suppressed the demands of the people will be considered and all that justice and expediency can do on their behalf will be forthcoming.

The Ambassador is living in the seventeenth century and not in the twentieth. The "few street brawlers" as he foolishly calls them, were not theorists, but men terribly in earnest and most practical in their demands. They were not animated by love nor by hatred for the Czar, but by the instincts moving all men worthy of the name to demands for reasonable measures of freedom. It was the mistake of the Bourbons to believe that the love of the French people had survived generations of oppressors and it is the mistake of the Czar, neither Bourbon nor Romanoff could appreciate the fact that it is not a question of Rings nor of Czars, but a question of peoples and of popular rights.

Count Cassini is, no doubt, doing the best to be done under the circumstances in the service of a bad and a waning cause. But the American public will not be moved to sympathy because of his statement that when order has been restored the people will be given a hearing, for the meaning of it is that after the Cossacks have slaughtered the men of St Petersburg and Moscow and of Sevastopol the petitions of the survivors will be heard if they can muster up the courage to ask a hearing at the bloody doors of the palace of the Czar. The order to which Count Cassini refers is found only in the grave.—Commercial Tribune.

Among the many building enterprises which are promised for the coming season, is the erection of a fraternal hall. Several of the leading orders in the city are now preparing plans and have committees at work preparing the necessary plans. It is believed by those in position to know that at least two or three of the strong orders will combine efforts and erect a three story structure which will be a credit to the orders interested as well as to the city. This is certainly a good move in the right direction and one which will certainly receive hearty support from all fraternal sources.

A Specialty

When all is said and done, there are many reasons why Union county should make an exhibit at the Lewis and Clark fair. The county cannot afford to do otherwise. To take a parsimonious position upon this matter will be accepted as an indication that our people are years behind the times and have not sufficient enterprise to represent at a time when the entire state is in holiday attire. The proper thing to do is to engage space and show what we can produce, and do it right. It will cost something, but what of it? In this day to join to procession in affairs of this sort.

The Czar's boy baby is taking his first lesson in the "three Rs—Russia, Riot and Revolution."

Now is the time for the Czar to keep a steady hand and not lose his head.

Music

B. P. Tait the pioneer music teacher of Grande Ronde Valley is still in the ring. During my vacation I made it my business as well as pleasure to attend concerts, operas, and in fact every thing in my line of business and I found that I as a teacher, and interpreter of music and still in the front rank. Pupils who do not wish the full conservatory course may take the popular piano course. This places the pupil in position to play the popular music of the day, Church and Sunday School music.

The Violin popular course places the pupil in position to play all kinds of dance music as well as light overtures. Quite a number of musicians who have been under my instruction are now making good money as teachers and soloists. Pupils who are under my care will be thoroughly instructed in music.

Stomach Troubles and Constipation

"Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are the best thing for stomach troubles and constipation I have ever sold," says J. K. Calliman, a druggist of Pottsville, Mich. "I was much afflicted with sciatica writes Ed C. Nud, Lowville, Sedgwick Co Kan, "going" about on crutches, and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used, have recommended it to a number of persons all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm."—Newlin Drug Co.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism," says W. H. Howard of Husband, Pennsylvania. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by Newlin Drug Co.
