WHAT SOME PEOPLE IN AND OUT OF TOWN ARE DOING.

S J White and wife are visiting relatives in Pendleton.

Miss Buelab Jones of Union is visiting in La Grande this week.

Attorney Turner Oliver is among business visitors in Salem.

Company L will give a dance at the Armory hall Monday evening.

There will be no preaching services at the Methodist church tomorrow.

Attorney O E Cochran came over from Union this morning on legal business.

F S Bramwell, of the Sugar factory has returned from a business trip to Portland.

O H Harper, manager of the creamery, returned this forenoon from a business trip to Pendleton.

Mrs Ada Johnston of Cove who has been visiting in the city for several days returned home this morning.

Jerry Fleetwood, the Baker county Assessor passed through the city this morning enroute to his home after a visit to points west.

O Balston, a former active resident of this city for years, arrived this morning to look after his property interests. Mr Balston and family are spending the winter in Ashland.

All members of the A V Andrews suit club are requested to be at the store this evening at 8 o'clock. The first drawing will take place. Don't forget.

All members of I O O F lodge No 16 are requested to attend the meeting of the lodge this evening as business of special importance will come before the meeting.

Lon Cleaver who is interested in the Electric Belt Line in Union Co, is in the city on business, and says that work will begin on parts of the road shortly.

All those holding tickets for the Punch Bowl at the Hotel Sommer are requested to be at the Sommer House cafe tonight at 8 30 o'clock. The drawing will take place promptly at that hour.

The Rev Thos Needham will preach at 11 a m tomorrow, at the Presbyterian church. His subject will be "Wholly Following the Lord." By request Mr Powers will sing "The Holy City."

Al Acton, a well known early pioneer of this valley and who claims the honor of having built the first rail fence here was in the city yesterday on land office business. He is an interesting conversationist and told many amusing incidents of the early pioneers. He especially well remembers Sam Williamson's remarkable cure for the ear ache.

James Murphy, of the firm of Murphy Bros in La Grande, passed through the city yesterday morning en route home from a trip to Walla Walla. Mr Murphy says La Grande has been enjoying a most prosperous winter and that in fact the entire Grande Ronde valley has been better in a financial way the past year than usual, and much building is going on in La Grande.—Pendleton Tribune.

All members of the Les Bontes club are invited to attend a social dance to be given by the gentlemen members of the club at the Armory hall this evening.

The dance given by the Commercial Club last evening in the Club hall was well attended and very enjoyable. Miss May White and Mr. Wm. Snodgrass were awarded the prizes in the prize waltz.

Blown Into Atoms

(By Scripps News Association)
 Hagertown Maryland Jan 28—One man was killed and six were seriously injured as the result of a premature explosion of dynamite today on the Western Maryland extension at Shike Lock. The dead man was completely blown to pieces.

Entertained Last Night.

Miss Margaret Anson and Nellie Finn entertained the members of the Kaffee Klatch their husbands and gentlemen friends at the home of the former last evening. Whist was the main feature of the evening's entertainment, Mrs F E Moore and Mr C Newlin winning first and Mr and Mrs W Berry second prizes. Dainty refreshments were served and there were twenty couples present.
