Wants Habeas Corpus

(By Scripps News Association)
Washington Jan. 30.—Senator Patterson of Colorado asked the Supreme Court today for permission to file an application for a writ of habeas corpus for Thomas Shepard, Obs. Miller of Denver, Colo., election judges now in jail on the charge of contempt for disobeying the injunction of the state Supreme Court, and argued that the prisoners were held without due process of law.

Last Chance Gone

Washington, Jan. 30.—The application for a writ of certiorari in the case of Machen Lorenz Diller and Samuel A. Goff, convicted of post office frauds, and sentenced to two years imprisonment and ten thousand dollars fine, was denied this morning by the Supreme Court. This deprives the defendants of their last chance to escape punishment and they have been sent to Maundsville, Va., to the penitentiary.

Will Inspect Mint

Moscow Ida, Jan. 30.—Judge Warren Truitt left today for Philadelphia to meet the newly appointed commission for inspection of the United States mint on February 8. The commission will inspect the mint at Philadelphia after which Judge Truitt will go to Washington D. C. for a few days and from there will return to Moscow.

Beef Trust Beaten

(By Scripps News Association)
Washington Jan. 30.—The Supreme Court today entered a decision adverse to Swift and Co. and the other companies of the beef trust in their appeal from the injunction of the Federal Court of the northern district of Illinois, restraining the illegal combination to restrict competition in the purchase of live stock and the sale of dressed beef. The sweeping injunction is affirmed with certain minor modifications in order to make it conform to the bill of the Attorney General. The decision of the court was unanimous.

OFFENSES JUSTIFY PROCEEDING
Justice Holmes delivered the opinion of the Court, and in the opinion admitted that some of the charges were less specific than desirable but said that sufficient had been shown to prove continuous offenses, and offenses of such nature as to justify the proceedings.

Witness Testifies in North Sea Case

(By Scripps News Association)
Paris, Jan. 30.—In the session of the International Commission today, two witnesses have testified, namely, Captain Johnson and mate Stromberg of the steamer Albermar, both of whom are Swedes. These witnesses testified that a few hours before the firing upon the British trawlers, their boat was attacked by a strange warship which fired many shots at the boat, but without serious damage, and that the warship then disappeared. Hugh O'Beirnam, the British agent, said that the strange vessel was the Russian transport, Kamschatka, which mistook the Swedish craft for a torpedo boat. O'Beirnam declared that the Kamschatka notified Rojensky that they had been attacked by a torpedo boat which led to the North Sea incident.

TO THE PUBLIC:

The rush of Holiday trade is over and business in general has got back to its normal condition. I wish to inform all my patrons, and those not my patrons but who are liable to be, that I am now in a position to take care of all watch, clock and jewelry repairing with dispatch. I have secured all the necessary help in all the latest tools and materials known to the trade, as well as the best workman that money can procure.

All repair work is under my personal supervision and I guarantee each and every piece of work done to be finished in first class workmanlike manner, and to give (with proper attention) perfect satisfaction. All work sent by mail or express will receive the same careful attention as if delivered in person, and to be promptly returned in first class condition.

Thanking my patrons for their past liberal patronage and assuring them of my utmost ability to give them perfect satisfaction in the future. I remain as ever,
