Special Services at Presbyterian Church

The Sunday morning services were largely attended, extra seats being provided.
Scripture Reading was 23rd Psalm in concert and Isaiah 6: 1-3-3.
Bible Reading at 3:00 p m was well attended. Subject was Faith. Scripture Reading Heb 11:3
A packed house greeted the evening services. Seats could hardly be provided for all. Much interest was manifested in all the services of the day, especially by the young people and children in the Sabbath school. God's spirit is working in our midst and great blessings are expected.

Special music arranged by Prof Powers was rendered, Prof Powers sang the "Holy City," in the morning by special request. It was wonderful. The solo was, "Almost Persuaded" and "The Sinner and the Song." This was a solo with quartet chorus and was touching and beautiful. The duet by Prof Powers and Mrs Forrest was especially worthy of praise, "Oh It is Wonderful." Prof Power's singing is extra-ordinary, and more should hear him.

Have Rough House

(By Scripps News Association)
Trukee, Cal Jan 30—Fifteen drunken workmen played havoc with the Floriston last night. For some time past there has been illfeeling between the manager, Glenn, and the boarders, the latter threatening bodily injury to the manager. At the supper table last night, the manager rebuked the men for loud talking, whereupon they left the table, went to the office and demanded whisky, but were refused. Three of the men then grabbed Glenn, shoved him out of the window and helped themselves to the liquors, broke the bottle goods and spilled the rest. They broke the bar furniture and threw the stove through the window, turned the billiard table over and smashed the chairs and counters. They climaxed their work by breaking every glass in the first floor of the building and then went up the hill and rolled big boulders down against the building. Word was passed to destroy the goods in the store, but guards were replaced and the mob repulsed and gotten under control. The manager was not seriously injured.
Elmira M. Carpenter, mother of Mrs. Allie Broughton is seriously ill with paralysis. This is her second stroke and she was unable to speak today.

Division Question

The hearing of the arguments for and against the division of Union county is expected to take place before committee on counties this afternoon or evening.
A report against division by this committee practically means the end of it, while a favorable report from this committee does not necessarily mean the bill will pass. Nevertheless the committee reports carry great strength.

Os-te-op-a-ty

The foundation rock upon which Osteopathy is built is "that an unobstructed flow of the body fluids must result in health and that disease of all kinds except traumatic is the result of one or more of these life streams becoming clogged."
That the clogging is mechanical and in most cases starts from some abnormality, (slight though it may be) of the bony structure is a fact which our medical brother finds hard to accept as true, but the truth of which is demonstrated every day by Osteopaths by treatment applied along the line of diagnosis.
