HILGARD MAN WAS ROUGHLY TREATED

The attention of the Justice court was occupied yesterday afternoon with the case wherein one Mac Moore was charged with larceny from the person of one J. B. Dillman. It seems both the parties reside near Hilgard, and last Friday they both proceeded to look upon the wine when it was red. The result is that Dillman is short a watch, some fourteen dollars and a revolver. He is also winner a pair of beautifully clouded eyes and a badly twisted nose.

Moore is short some cuticle on his nose and has a paid up ticket to all he accommodations of the county jail. When the case was called yesterday afternoon Dillman was there with all his agony and was ready to prosecute with full force, but Moore waived examination and was placed in jail to await the action of the February term. Moore says he did not steal the time piece and the shooting iron, but that he held the said articles as security for a five dollar loan which he gave Mr. Dillman in order that he might pay his respects to a female known to the city and county officers as "Franchy," who is mistress of a joint at Hilgard. Dillman says he did not borrow any money from Moore, but states that Moore relieved him of the above mentioned articles in order that he might make the acquaintance of the said Franchy. There seems to be a difference of opinion regarding it all with the exception of the black eyes and the barked noses. Both the party of the first part and the party of the second part seem to be satisfied that the other fellow did the rough work. The state was represented by Clarence Crawford who acted in the capacity of district attorney.

Moore was arrested by officer Mo-Laehlen while in a buggy with the above mentioned "Franchy" and the revolver found in his pocket and the watch was found in the buggy. Moore and the woman had come to La Grande to finish their spree and were about to return to their Hilgard home. Moore was placed under three hundred dollars bonds to appear before the court, and being unable to secure the funds was placed in the county jail.

Special Services at Presbyterian Church

The services at the Presbyterian church were not as largely attended as usual but a good spiritual meeting was had. Some little time was spent in hearing the testimony of Christians. This part of the service was conducted by Rev Hays.

The solo by Mr Powers was of especial interest and fittingly suited the spirit of the evening. It was "My Friend."

Scripture Reading was Solomon 5: 10. Rev Needham said "This is the most wonderful, the most marvelous picture of the Saviour in the Bible, or elsewhere.

In Luke we learn the story of the good Samaritan. We are there told who our neighbor is. When we accept the Son of God as our Savior He is to us as the good Samaritan. He came to heal us, to save us, to give us peace and joy, and He is the good Samaritan.

We will never be left alone. He was with the Hebrew captives who were placed in the furnace. They were not harmed, but were bound by fetters. The Son of God kept them from harm. We too are bound in fetters of sin and need liberty. Jesus can give it to us.

Mr Powers sang the wonderful solo, "The Glory Song," which has created such a stir in the hearts of the people in the great meetings.

Everyone should hear and learn that beautiful and powerful hymn."

Senator Bard Talks

(By Scripps News Association)
Washington Jan 31—Senator Bard of California today told the sub-committee of the Senate committee on Indian affairs that he had been approached by an agent of the Catholic association interested in Indian affairs and missions, who promised to carry several legislative districts for him for his re-election in return for the Senator's influence and favor to countenance and aid the Catholic schools.

The statements were made in connection with the charge of S. N. Brocius of the Indian relief association, that ninety eight per cent of the funds for educational purposes for Indians had gone to Catholic institutions and largely because of Roosevelt's friendship for the Catholics.

Increase the Fees

By Scripps News Association
Washington Jan. 31.—In response to the President's special message, the Senate today passed an amendment to the house bill increasing the incorporation fees in the District of Columbia from one dollar a charter to forty cents for each one thousand dollars of capital stock, giving the recorder of deeds the discretion to refuse any application for a charter, where he was not satisfied that the capital stock was subscribed in good faith. It is said that the Senate is now considering the revoking of charters already granted with capital aggregating five billion dollars.

Osteopath Is Sane

How often may it not occur that the derangement and atrophy of vital functions which have rendered so many human lives wretched and worthless, are caused by some slight vertebral displacement, or almost unnoticeable curvature of the spine! And in such cases the replacement of the involved vertebrae, or alignment of the spinal column, is all the "doctoring" needed for the return of health, courage and joy to individuals racked by needless suffering unto despair.
